A HAT for MR MOUNTAIN

SOOJIN KWAK

TWO HOOTS

There was once a girl called Nara who made lovely, colourful hats in her studio in the forest.

She was good with ribbons, and very clever at sewing.

She made hats for dogs, foxes, and even giraffes. Their smiles when they tried on their hats made Nara very happy.

Creatures of every shape and size came to Nara's studio in search of the perfect hat.
No matter how big or how small,
she welcomed them all.

One day, Nara got a big letter in the post.

"Poor Mr Mountain," said Nara.
"I will make him the best hat in the world."

Nara got some wool and started to knit.
It would take a long time to make a hat big enough for a mountain, but Nara had some help.

Giraffe piled up things to stand on,
Little Dog held the wool, and Elephant made sure everything was steady.

The lazy cats just wanted to play.

But at last the giant hat was finished.

Mr Mountain was very happy.
"Thank you, Nara," he said.
