A Rabbit Called Fox Herbert

MARGARET STURTON

Andersen Press

Herbert loved foxes.

Herbert loved foxes so much he made himself a pair of red ears.

"Rabbit ears aren't short and pointy," laughed Herbert's mummy. Reluctantly, Herbert let his ears look rabbity again.

The next day, Herbert painted himself red with the help of his little sister.

Then they played find-the-fox.

Herbert's mummy was cross.
"Look at the mess you've made!" she said.
"Promise me you will be a good rabbit."

Herbert helped to clean up.
