The Song for Everyone

LONDON OXFORD NEW YORK NEW DELHI SYDNEY

It was just a tiny window, too high in the eaves to be noticed from below and too small to let in much daylight.

And yet one morning out came a delicate tune.

A melody,

a song,

a sound so sweet

drifted out on to the breeze and down into the lanes below.

The schoolboy had a long and lonely walk each morning.

As he passed beneath the small window
he stopped to listen to the music.
