
Rosa Parks
A LIFE IN CIVIL RIGHTS
Grammie, who is this?

You're always wanting to skip ahead, sweetie.

This story is worth starting from the beginning. Let's go all the way back to 1913 when Rosa Louise McCauley was born in Tuskegee, Alabama.

The bus was starting to get really crowded.
I'm gonna need those seats!

Y'all better make it light on yourselves and let me have those seats!
Just then Rosa realized that the bus driver was James F. Blake, the same driver who dragged her off the bus in 1943.

Are you going to stand up?
No.
Well, I'm going to have you arrested.

You may do that.
