Arthur's day was not going at all as he had imagined it would.

It was quite simply the worst day ever.

“No!” stomped Arthur.

“NO!!” huffed Arthur.

And then he roared.

Arthur became absolutely certain that he couldn’t do a single thing right,

so he stomped

and he huffed

and he roared some more.

But that didn’t help at all.

There’s nothing for it, thought Arthur.
I will just have to run away.

So he packed the essentials and a couple of extras . . .

and Arthur ran away.

He ran and he ran, as far as he could, past the shed and very nearly to the end of the garden.
