Somewhere

nosy crow

Sometimes, Oscar wanted to get away from all the questions that grown-ups ask.

"Why haven't you eaten your broccoli, Oscar?"

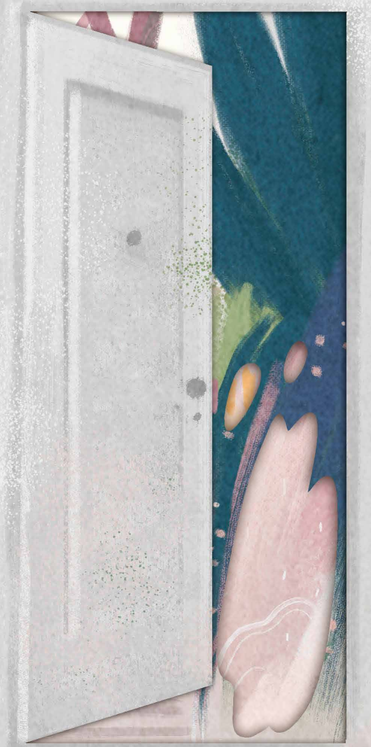

"How did you get your jumper so dirty, Oscar?"

"What did you do to your sister, Oscar?"

He tried not listening,
but that didn't help . . .

"Where are you going, Oscar?"
they called.

And Oscar said, "Nowhere."

And he ran out of the house,

just to the bottom
of the garden,

slipped into the trees and found himself in the middle of . . .

. . . Nowhere.
