Ah! Everything is fine. Sorry.
It's the first time you've seen them.
And I'm a bit worried.
Well, maybe you wouldn't be if you hadn't waited 3 years!
Th-they were busy and traveling a lot...
Do you wonder see what I've been working on lately?
Sure! Is this for that client that needs a mural design for their shop?
It's! Here take a look.

Well, I wish I could play the piano.
Ah, it's no big deal...

CHARLES!
Our last gardener forgot to water the plant.
Wasn't it Charles.
What was his name again? It was some funny African name
Yes. Thank god I got rid of him
What do you mean got rid of?
Well... we fired him obviously, what kind of gardener forgets to water a plant?
I don't know, he was a strange man, he was trying to explain something but we could hardly understand him.
Yes, his accent was very strong.
We obviously can't fire Charles, didn't we Charles.
