GRUMPY HAT

Nicola Kent

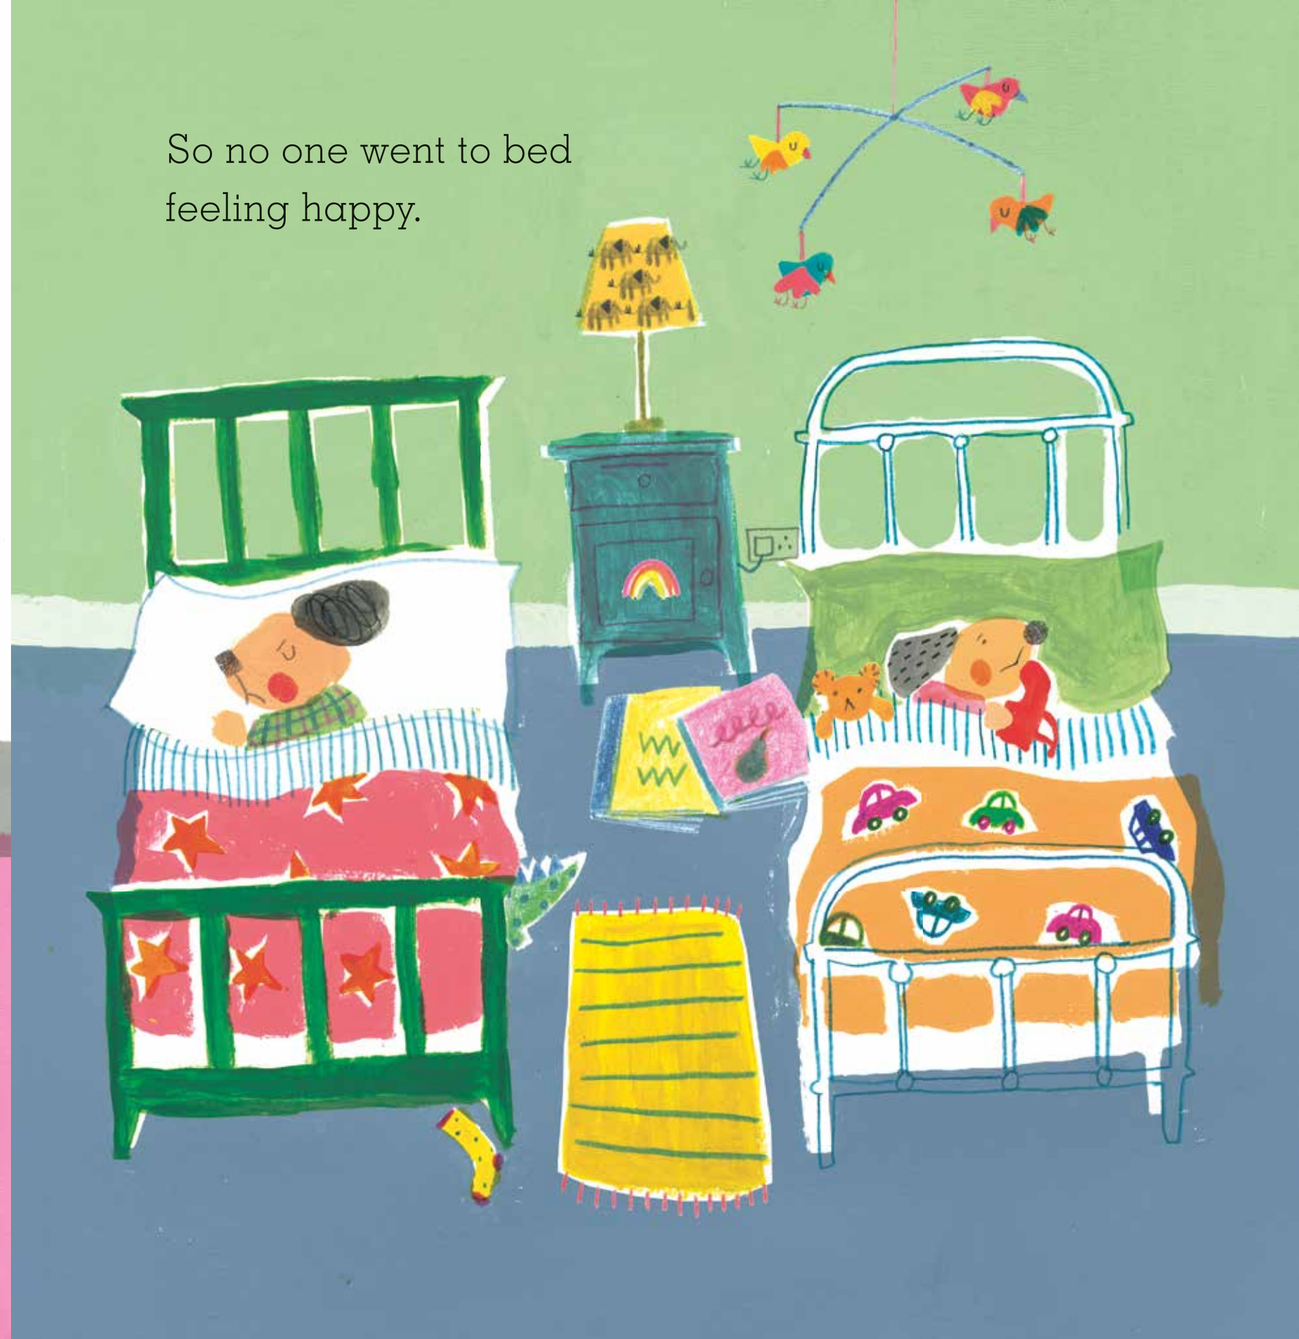

Andersen Press

Everyone knows little sisters can be AN-NOY-ING.

Ravi found his body fizzing with crossness, which burst out of his foot like a bolt of lightning.

So no one went to bed
feeling happy.

The next morning, Ravi woke up with a Grumpy Hat on his head.

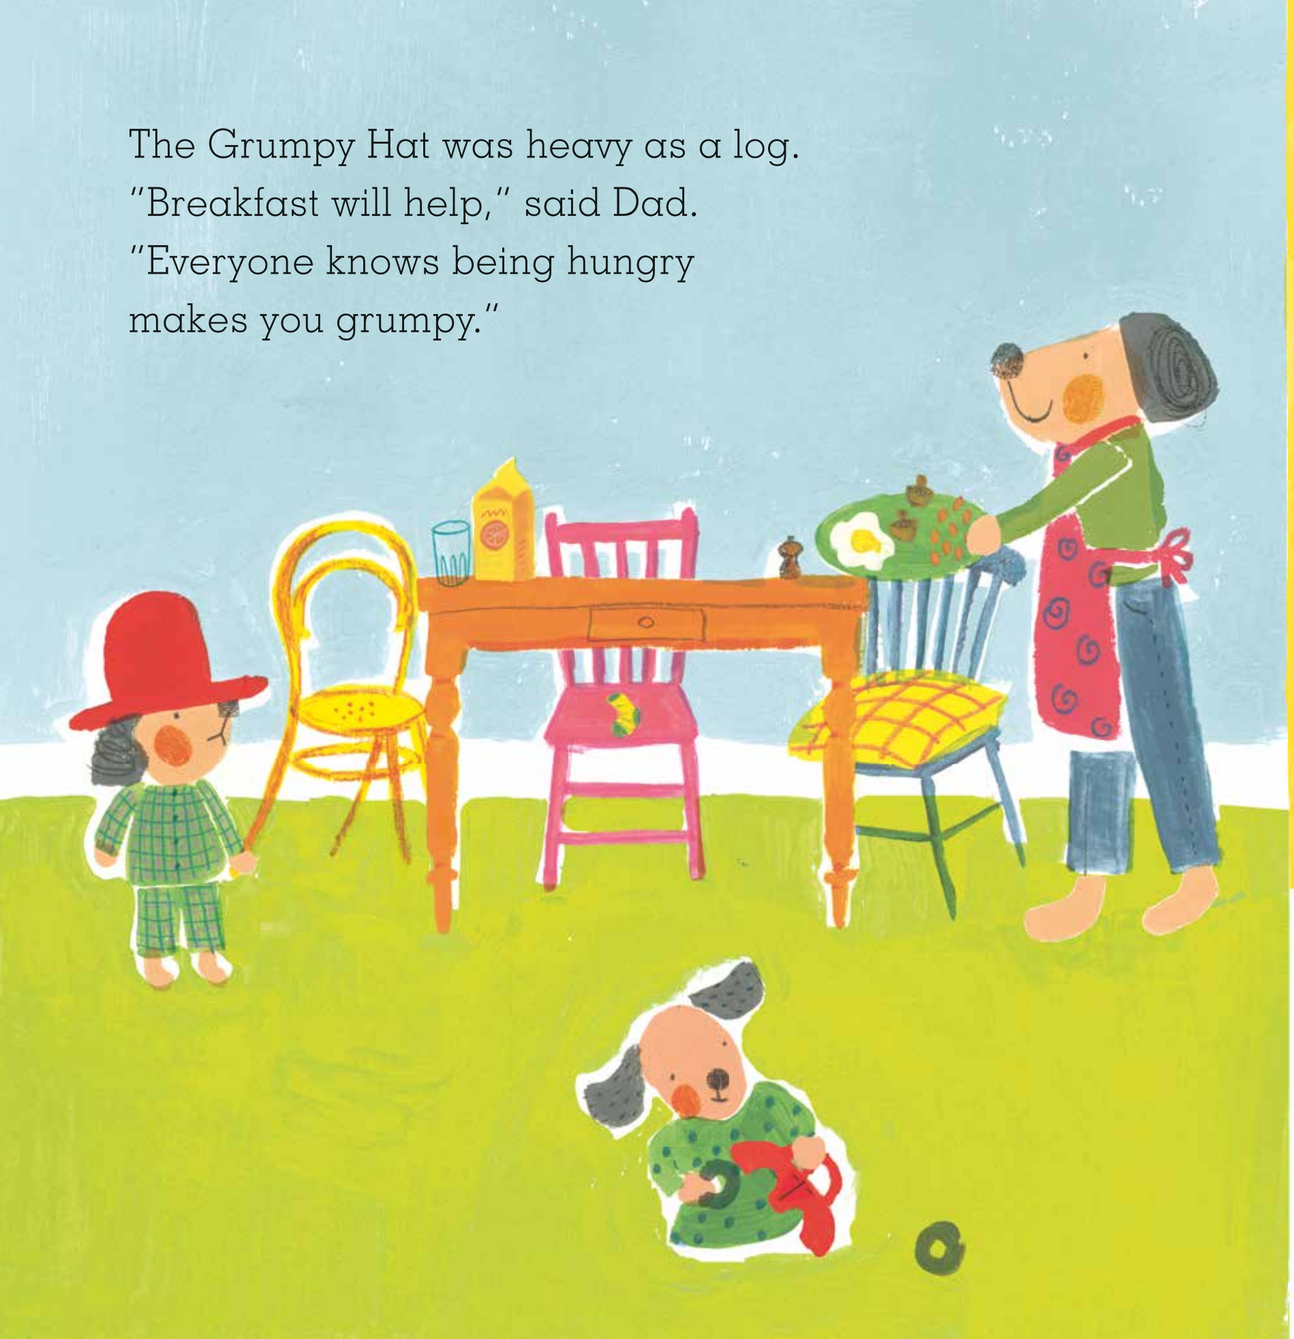

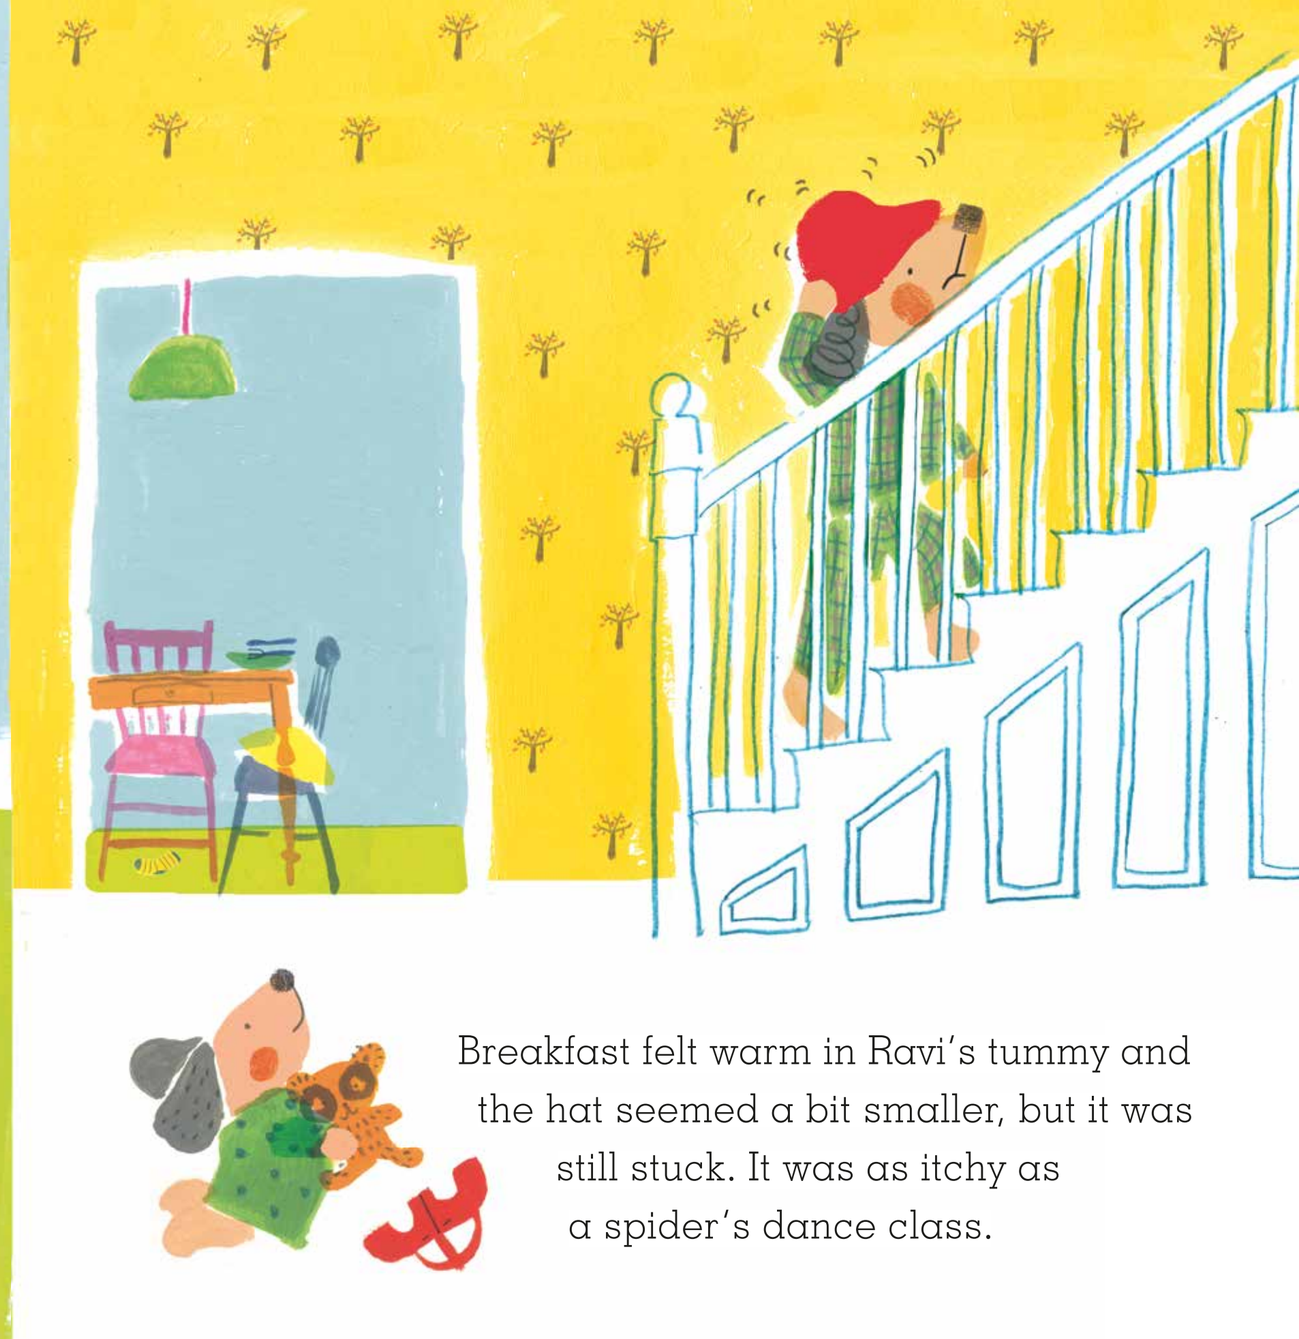

And it wouldn't come off!

The Grumpy Hat was heavy as a log.
"Breakfast will help," said Dad.
"Everyone knows being hungry makes you grumpy."

Breakfast felt warm in Ravi's tummy and the hat seemed a bit smaller, but it was still stuck. It was as itchy as a spider's dance class.
