Hey little human,
do you want to make noises
like the wild animals of the world?
Get ready to hoot
and purr and squeak.
Get ready to whoop and roar...
let's hear!

A humpback whale (a male whale)
might want to call his humpback friends.
But how, when the sea's so wide?
Easy! He sings through the water.
Hooooooo. Hooooooo. Long and low.
Can you do the same?
Let's hear!

Swim around like a whale with flappy flippers.

Call for a friend. Hoooo! Hoooo!

Look out for another whale...

Sing a hello! Hoooo! Hoooo!

Lions live in families.
The biggest one is father lion.
He likes to shake his shaggy mane
and tell us all how strong he is.
Roar! Roar! I'm the loudest!
Can you do the same?
Let's hear!

Lie down like a sleeping lion.

Wake up and shake your mane.

Stand up and look proud.
Get ready...

Roar!
Roar!
