Something Must RHYME with ORANGE

GORDON McINTYRE & KOKO RATTRAY

All the kids in Miss Jenkins' class are super excited.
There's going to be a poetry competition.
Each child will draw a piece of paper from a hat.
On the paper will be a word.
We have to write a rhyming poem about that word.

We draw the words in alphabetical order.
Aaron draws first. He gets the word boat.
Bethany draws second. She draws the word cat.
Delilah draws third. She gets the word bear.

All the other kids draw their words.
I draw last because my name is Zoe.

I draw the word:

ORANGE!
