The smiles, the thank-yous,
the crowds – they all grew.

And that small dot of KINDNESS?

It kept growing too!

When they got to the town, it filled up

a WHOLE lot

with the KINDNESS that came from that very small dot.

See the thing is with KINDNESS
– it spreads if you let it.
Just pass on a smile and you'll never regret it.

The ANGER grew BIGGER
and turned into fire,
with flickering flames
reaching HIGHER
and HIGHER.

This ANGER was

BIG.

It was

BOLD,

it was

TOUGH.

It must be put out . . .
but was KINDNESS enough?
