Faber has published children's books since 1929. T. S. Eliot's Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats and Ted Hughes' The Iron Man were amongst the first. Our catalogue at the time said that 'it is by reading such books that children learn the difference between the shoddy and the genuine'. We still believe in the power of reading to transform children's lives. All our books are chosen with the express intention of growing a love of reading, a thirst for knowledge and to cultivate empathy. We pride ourselves on responsible editing. Last but not least, we believe in kind and inclusive books in which all children feel represented and important.

To the children at Sheldwich Primary.
Thank you for suggesting we should create a story featuring a robber raccoon!

Rosie Raccoon was up to no good,
out and about in a grand neighbourhood.

With a sack on her back, she crept up to Bear's porch,
then clambered inside by the light of a . . .

. . . torch.
"Wow!" whispered Rosie,
eyes wide with surprise,
and she snuck away clutching
a glittering prize.
