There are billions of families,
a million ways to be . . .

and in my magic family it's Mama,
Mum
and me.

Mum makes my breakfast –
porridge, toast and jam.

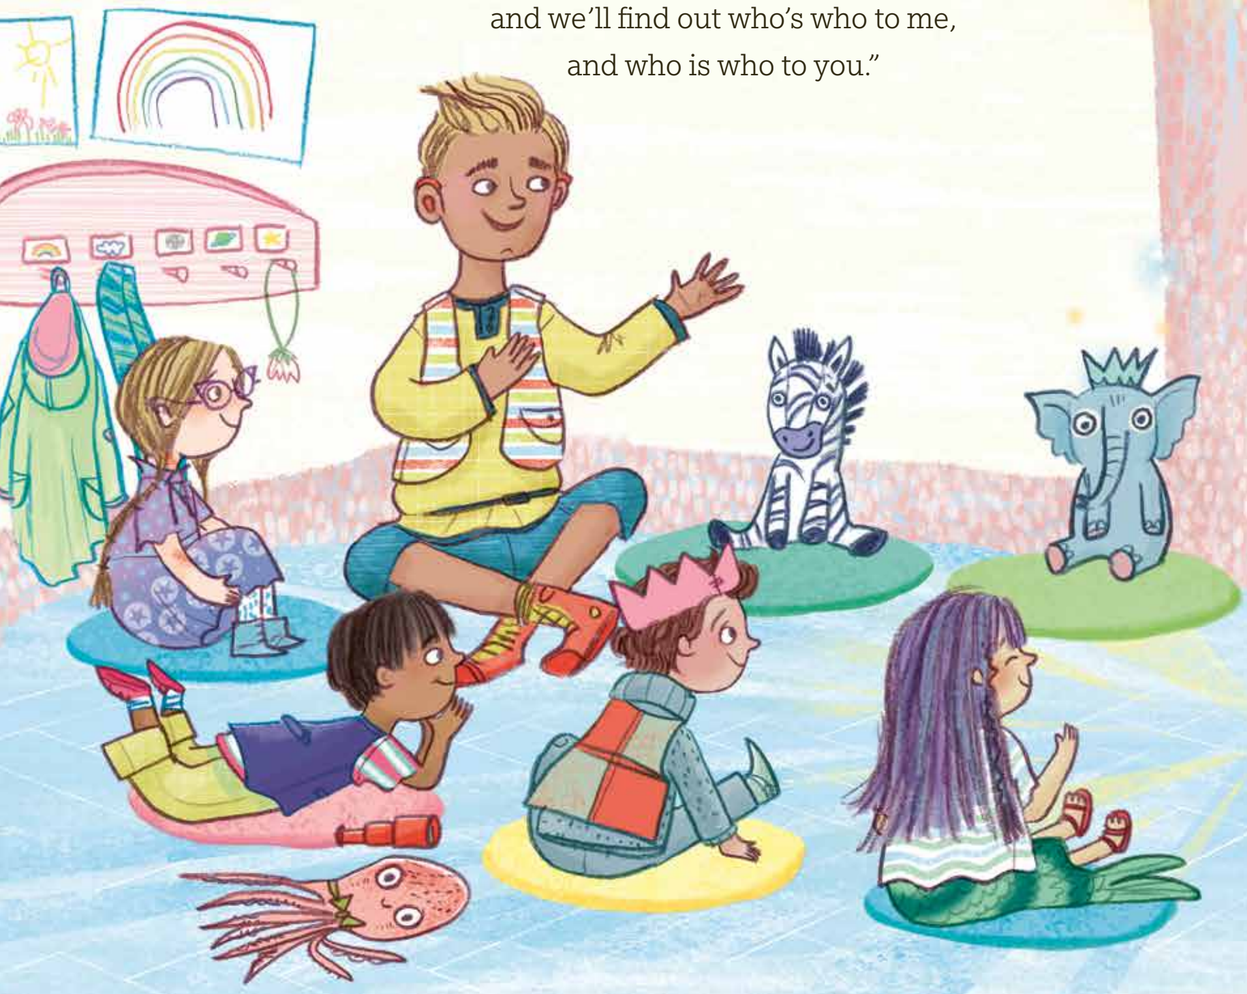

Abracadabra!
Whizzo! Wow!
Kabam!

Mama blows me kisses, and waves. "I love you, bye!
I'm late for work – it's time to go.
I REALLY have to fly!"

I wonder whether many children have two mums like me.
At nursery school our teacher says, "Why don't we ask and see!

Let's tell our family stories, adding magic to what's true,
and we'll find out who's who to me,
and who is who to you."

Gia puts her hand up. "Can I go first?" she cries.
She spins in sparkly circles and . . .

we can't believe our eyes.

"My daddy flies a spaceship,
my mama comes from Mars.
We built a home to call our own,
up among the stars.
At first when we came down to Earth,
I felt a little wary –
until I met my brilliant friend,
a kind and funny fairy."
