Ebb sat listening to the rain and the wind.

Pitter, patter, pitter, patter, pitter, patter, whoosh!

Ebb had eaten all her biscuits and chewed her toy into little bits.

She wanted someone to play with.

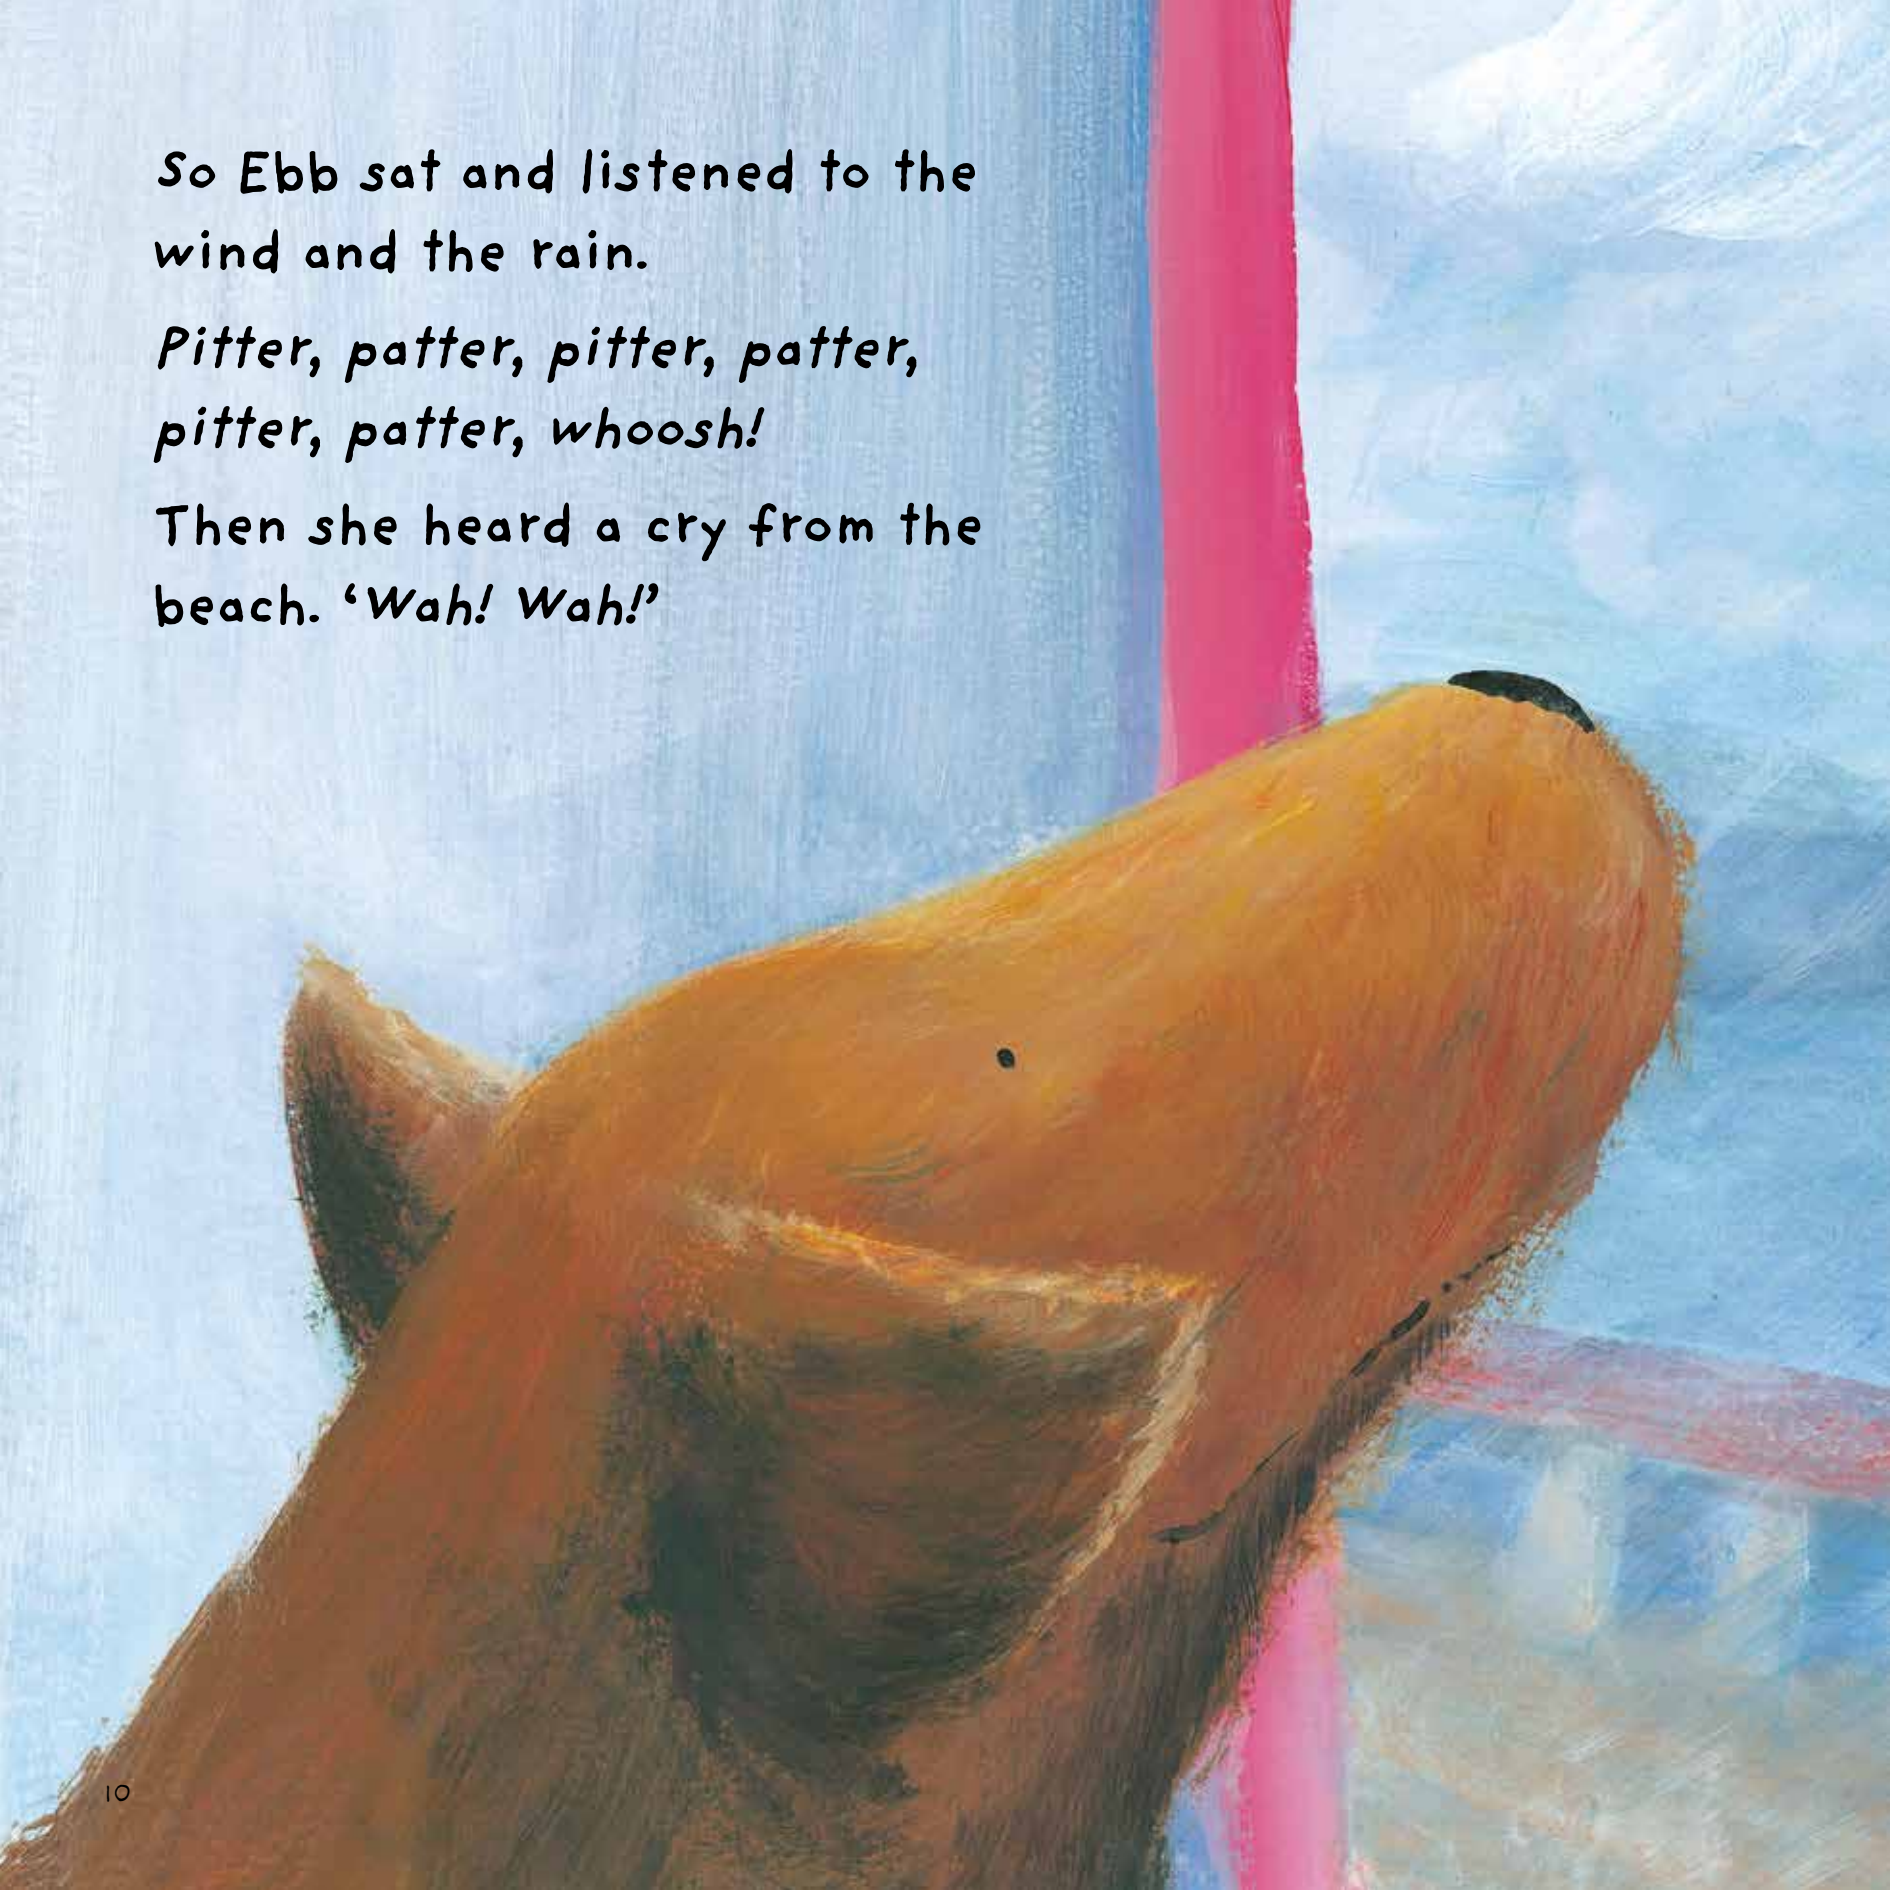

'Woof!' said Ebb, but Flo was busy painting.

'Woof!' said Ebb, but Bird was busy chatting with the ducks.

'Woof!' said Ebb, but Mum was too busy.

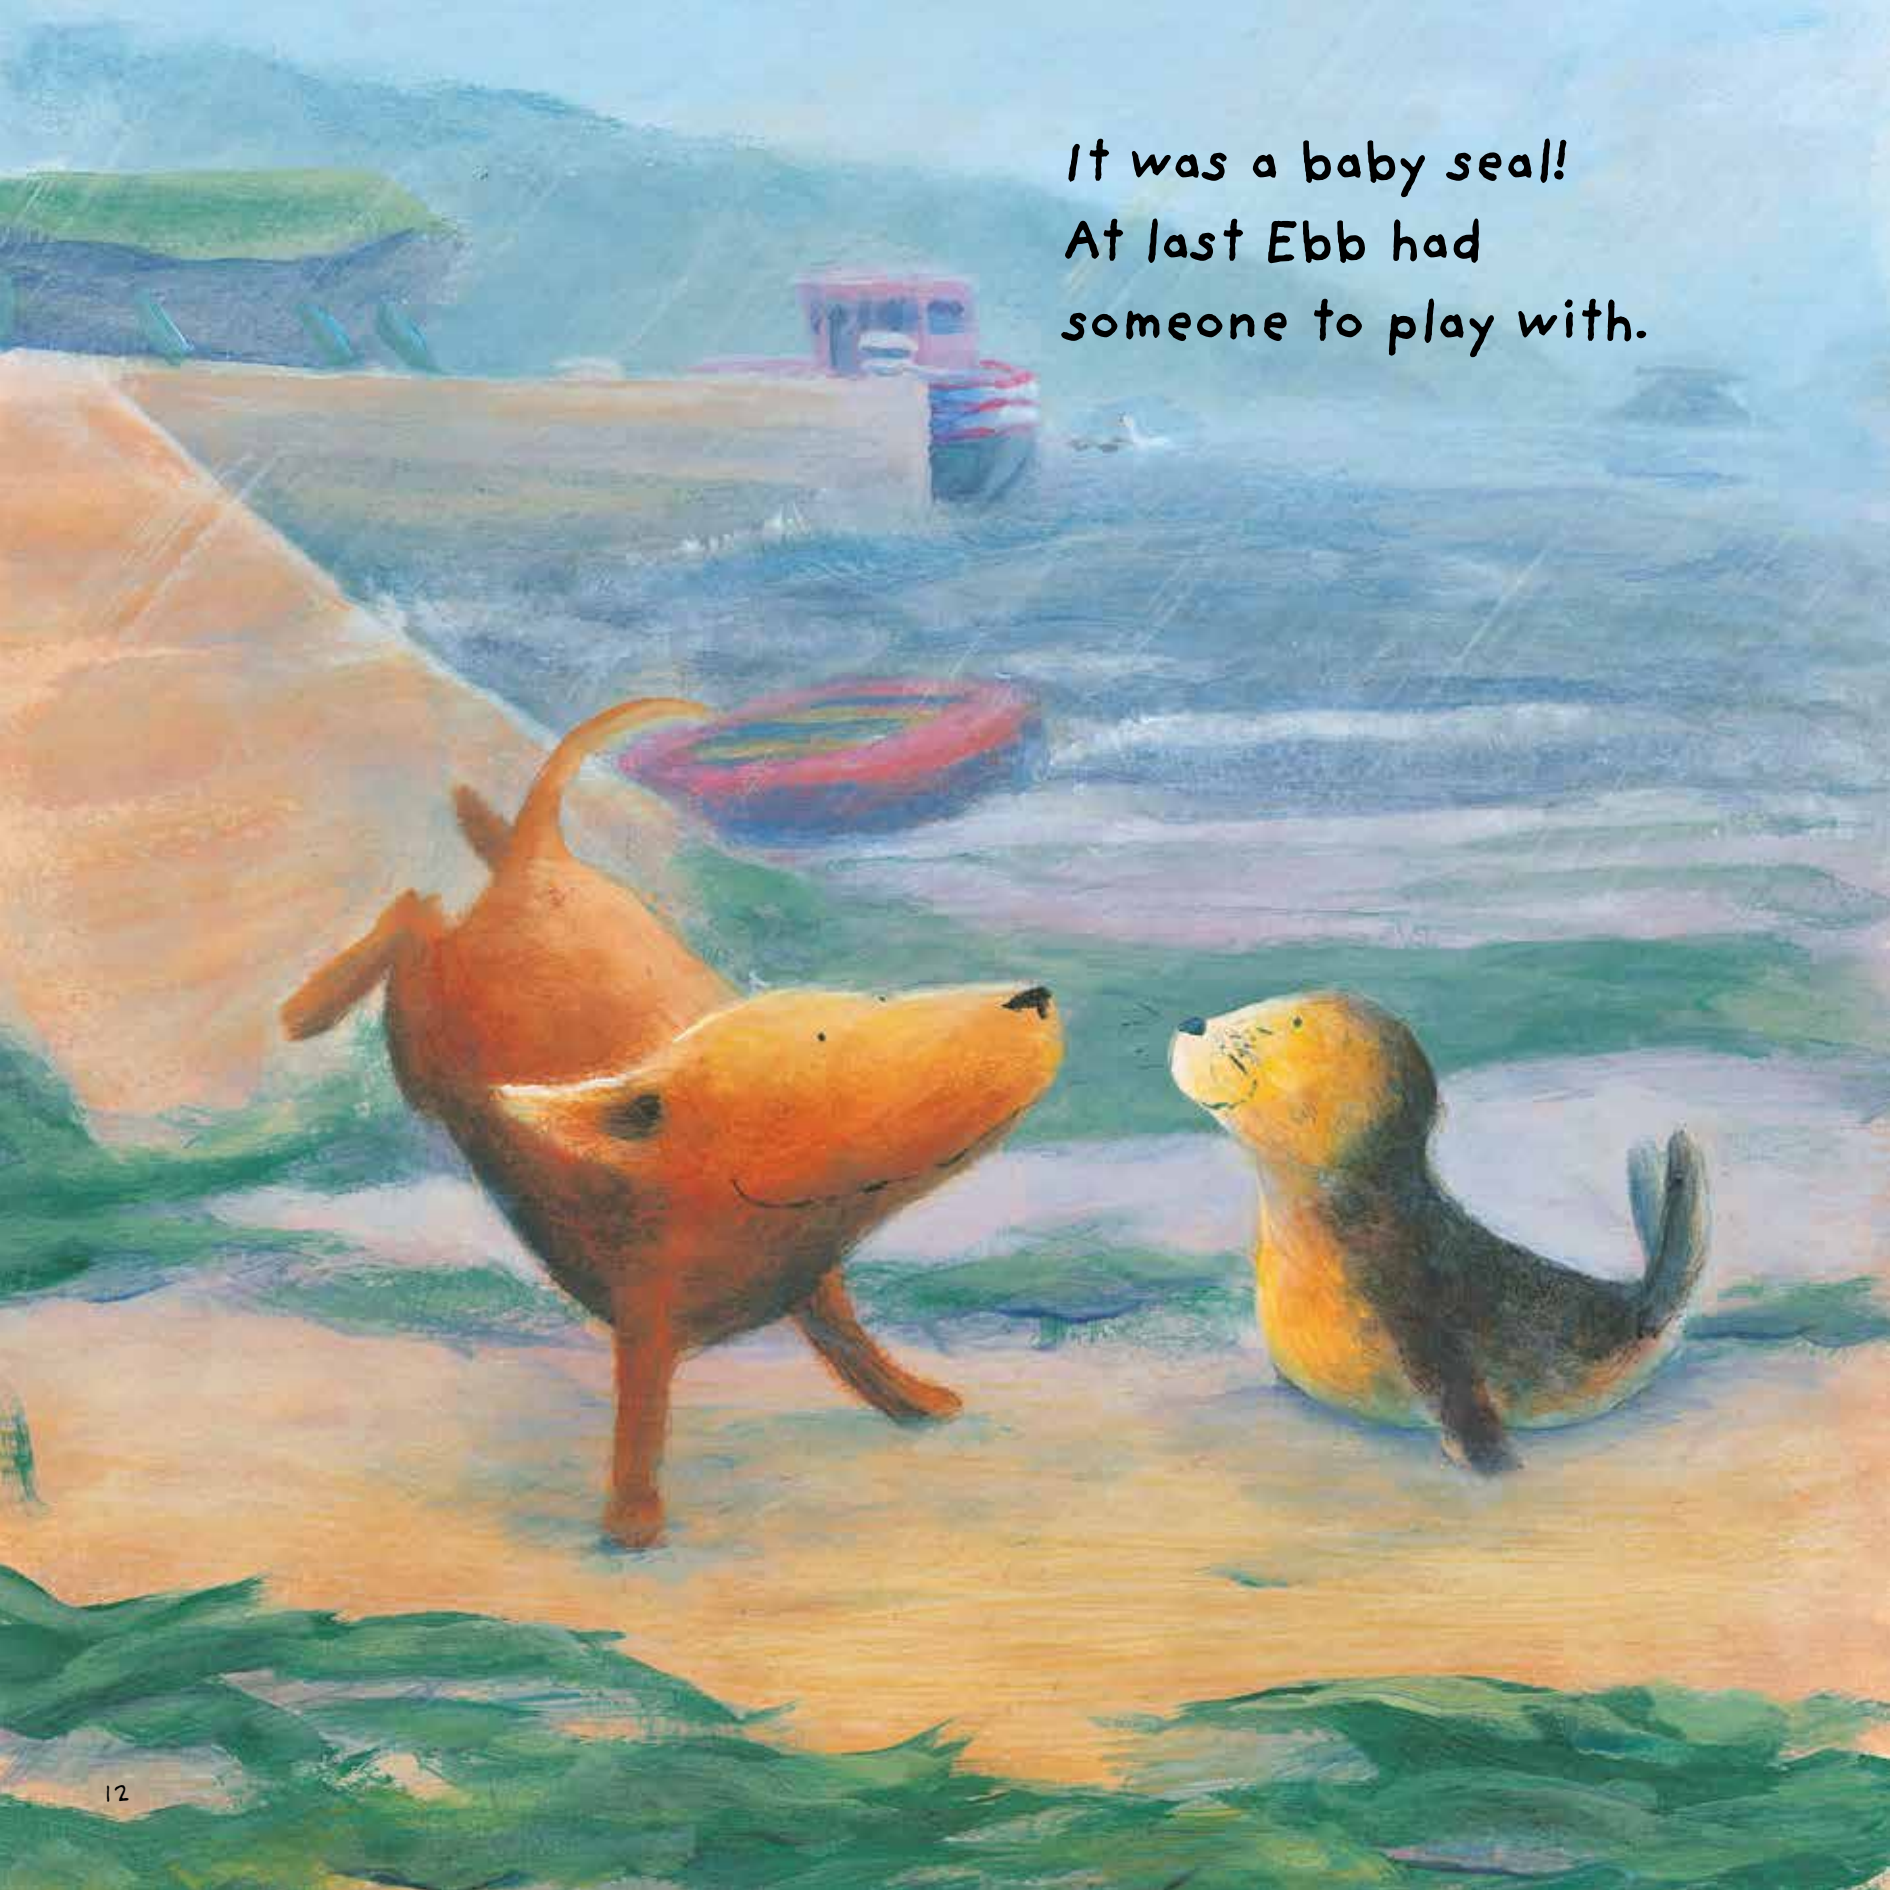

So Ebb sat and listened to the wind and the rain.

Pitter, patter, pitter, patter, pitter, patter, whoosh!

Then she heard a cry from the beach. 'Wah! Wah!'

It was a baby seal!
At last Ebb had someone to play with.

They played on the sand.

They played in the waves.

They played in the rock pools.

Flo and Mum are busy and Bird is talking to the ducks, so Ebb sets off to find someone to play with. Suddenly, she comes across a baby seal. At last! A friend! But the baby seal is a long way from home, and it's up to Ebb and the family to find its mother all the way on Seal Island.

An exciting rescue story about teamwork and friendship.
