THE EPIC OF GABRIEL and JIBREEL

A Cautionary Tale of Ultimate Friendship

By Marin

In memory of my father.
I was one year old when he died.
He was twenty seven.
His name was Angel.
M.D.

NOTE:

Christianity and Islam are both Abrahamic religions.

In the Christian religion, Gabriel is a messenger who is entrusted to bring God's words from His mouth to humanity.

In the Qur'an, the angel is called Jibreel and his main responsibility is to communicate the Words of Allah to His prophets.

The author of the story is agnostic.

Gabriel
lived with his father in a big house surrounded by other big houses.
He spent his time alone,
reading or playing video games.
Gabriel's mother died the night he was born.
Once, Gabriel said to his father that it would be better to have a small house and a mother
instead of a big house and no mother.
His father replied:
life isn't fair.
