

BALLET KIDS

HOLLY STERLING

I'm Thomas, and I want to be a ballet kid.

For the one we are yet to meet

When I wake up, snowflakes are falling softly outside.
My toes tingle with excitement.
It's ballet class today!

I put on my stretchy leggings and white top.

I wrap myself up
nice and warm.

And my ballet shoes
are in my bag.
Off we go!

We make our way to the dance studio, crunching through the snow.
There's Isla with her little dog Baxter.
And there's Maryam with her hair up in a bun.

There are the twins, Mollie and Oliver.
And Mr Elliot is across the road, already welcoming Charlotte into the warmth.
