Lovereading4kids.co.uk

Helping you choose books for children

0-5 5-7 7-9 9-12 12+

opening extract from

Honeybee's Busy Day

written by

Richard Fowler

published by

Random House

All text is copyright of the author and illustrator

please print off and read at your leisure.

It was a warm, sunny day, and Honeybee was busy gathering nectar from the flowers to make into honey.

If your honeybee should stray from its book, you can trace and cut out a new one using this printed honeybee as a guide.

. . . . Honeybee flew out of a bright . . . . . red poppy . . . . . and into a blue cornflower . . . . .

Honeybee flew out of the cornflower . . . . . and into . . . . . a yellow iris growing by the pond . . . . . .