ALEXANDER'S QUESTIONS

Written & illustrated by Fransie Frandsen

Do Grannies have green fingers?

Do Grannies have green fingers?
Written & illustrated by Fransie Frandsen

Copyright © Fransie Frandsen, 2022

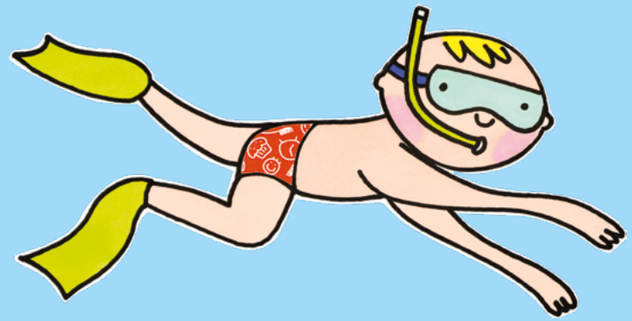

(2nd edition) First published in 2019 by artfox.bookwolf
Text and illustrations by Fransie Frandsen, www.fransiefrandsen.com
Design and layout by Gregory Page, www.pigment.ch
Editing by Sandra Bialystok, www.sandra.bialy.ca

ISBN 978-0-9568287-5-0

The moral right of Fransie Frandsen to be identified as the author and illustrator of this work has been asserted in accordance with the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical including photocopying, recording or any information storage or retrieval system, without prior permission from the author and publisher.

For Sedes, who loves pink hydrangeas.

Granny had, yet again,
won first prize for her garden.

"Just look at Granny's Garden," smiled Mummy.

DAILY DOG

"Granny really has green fingers," sighed Mummy.

"Green fingers?" chuckled Alexander.

"Do Grannies really have green fingers?" he wondered.

I don't have green fingers, thought Alexander, who was busy painting a picture.

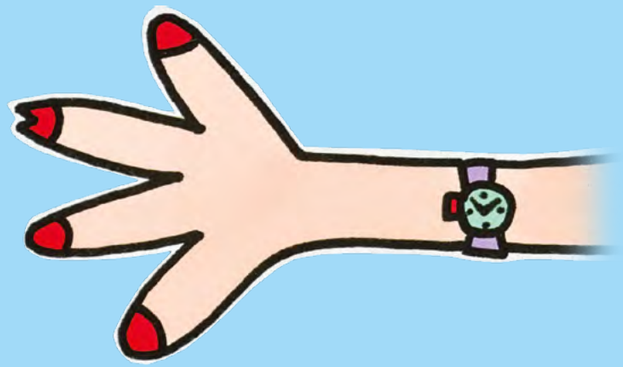

"Or do I?"

The next morning on their way to school, Alexander noticed that Mummy's nails were very green.

As Mummy really did not like chipped nailpolish, she often painted her nails a different colour.

weekdays

birthdays

Valentine's Day

Mother's Day

Easter

Christmas

"Mummy's nails might be green,

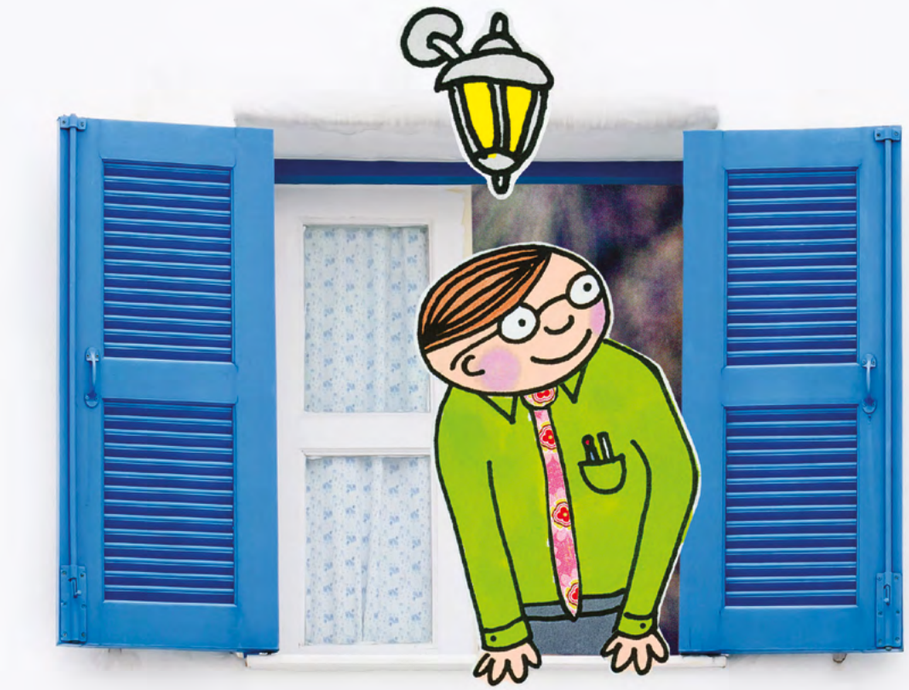

but Mummy definitely does not have green fingers," decided Alexander.

Not green

The following day, Daddy peeked out of the window and chuckled,

Daddy also saw that the Tinster had buried her bone again in the neighbour's favourite flowerbed. He was furious!

