The world is a wonderful place.
Alive! Full of joy and full of beauty.
The sun shines and
the sky is blue.

Sometimes we're too busy to notice it.

Artists try to see it all.

Here is an artist.

She sees the wonder,
the joy and the beauty.

She sees it all
and makes it into her ART.

. . . into art.

The Artist plays
with crayons,
paint and pencils.

She dreams as she draws.
Her dreams turn into a plan . . .

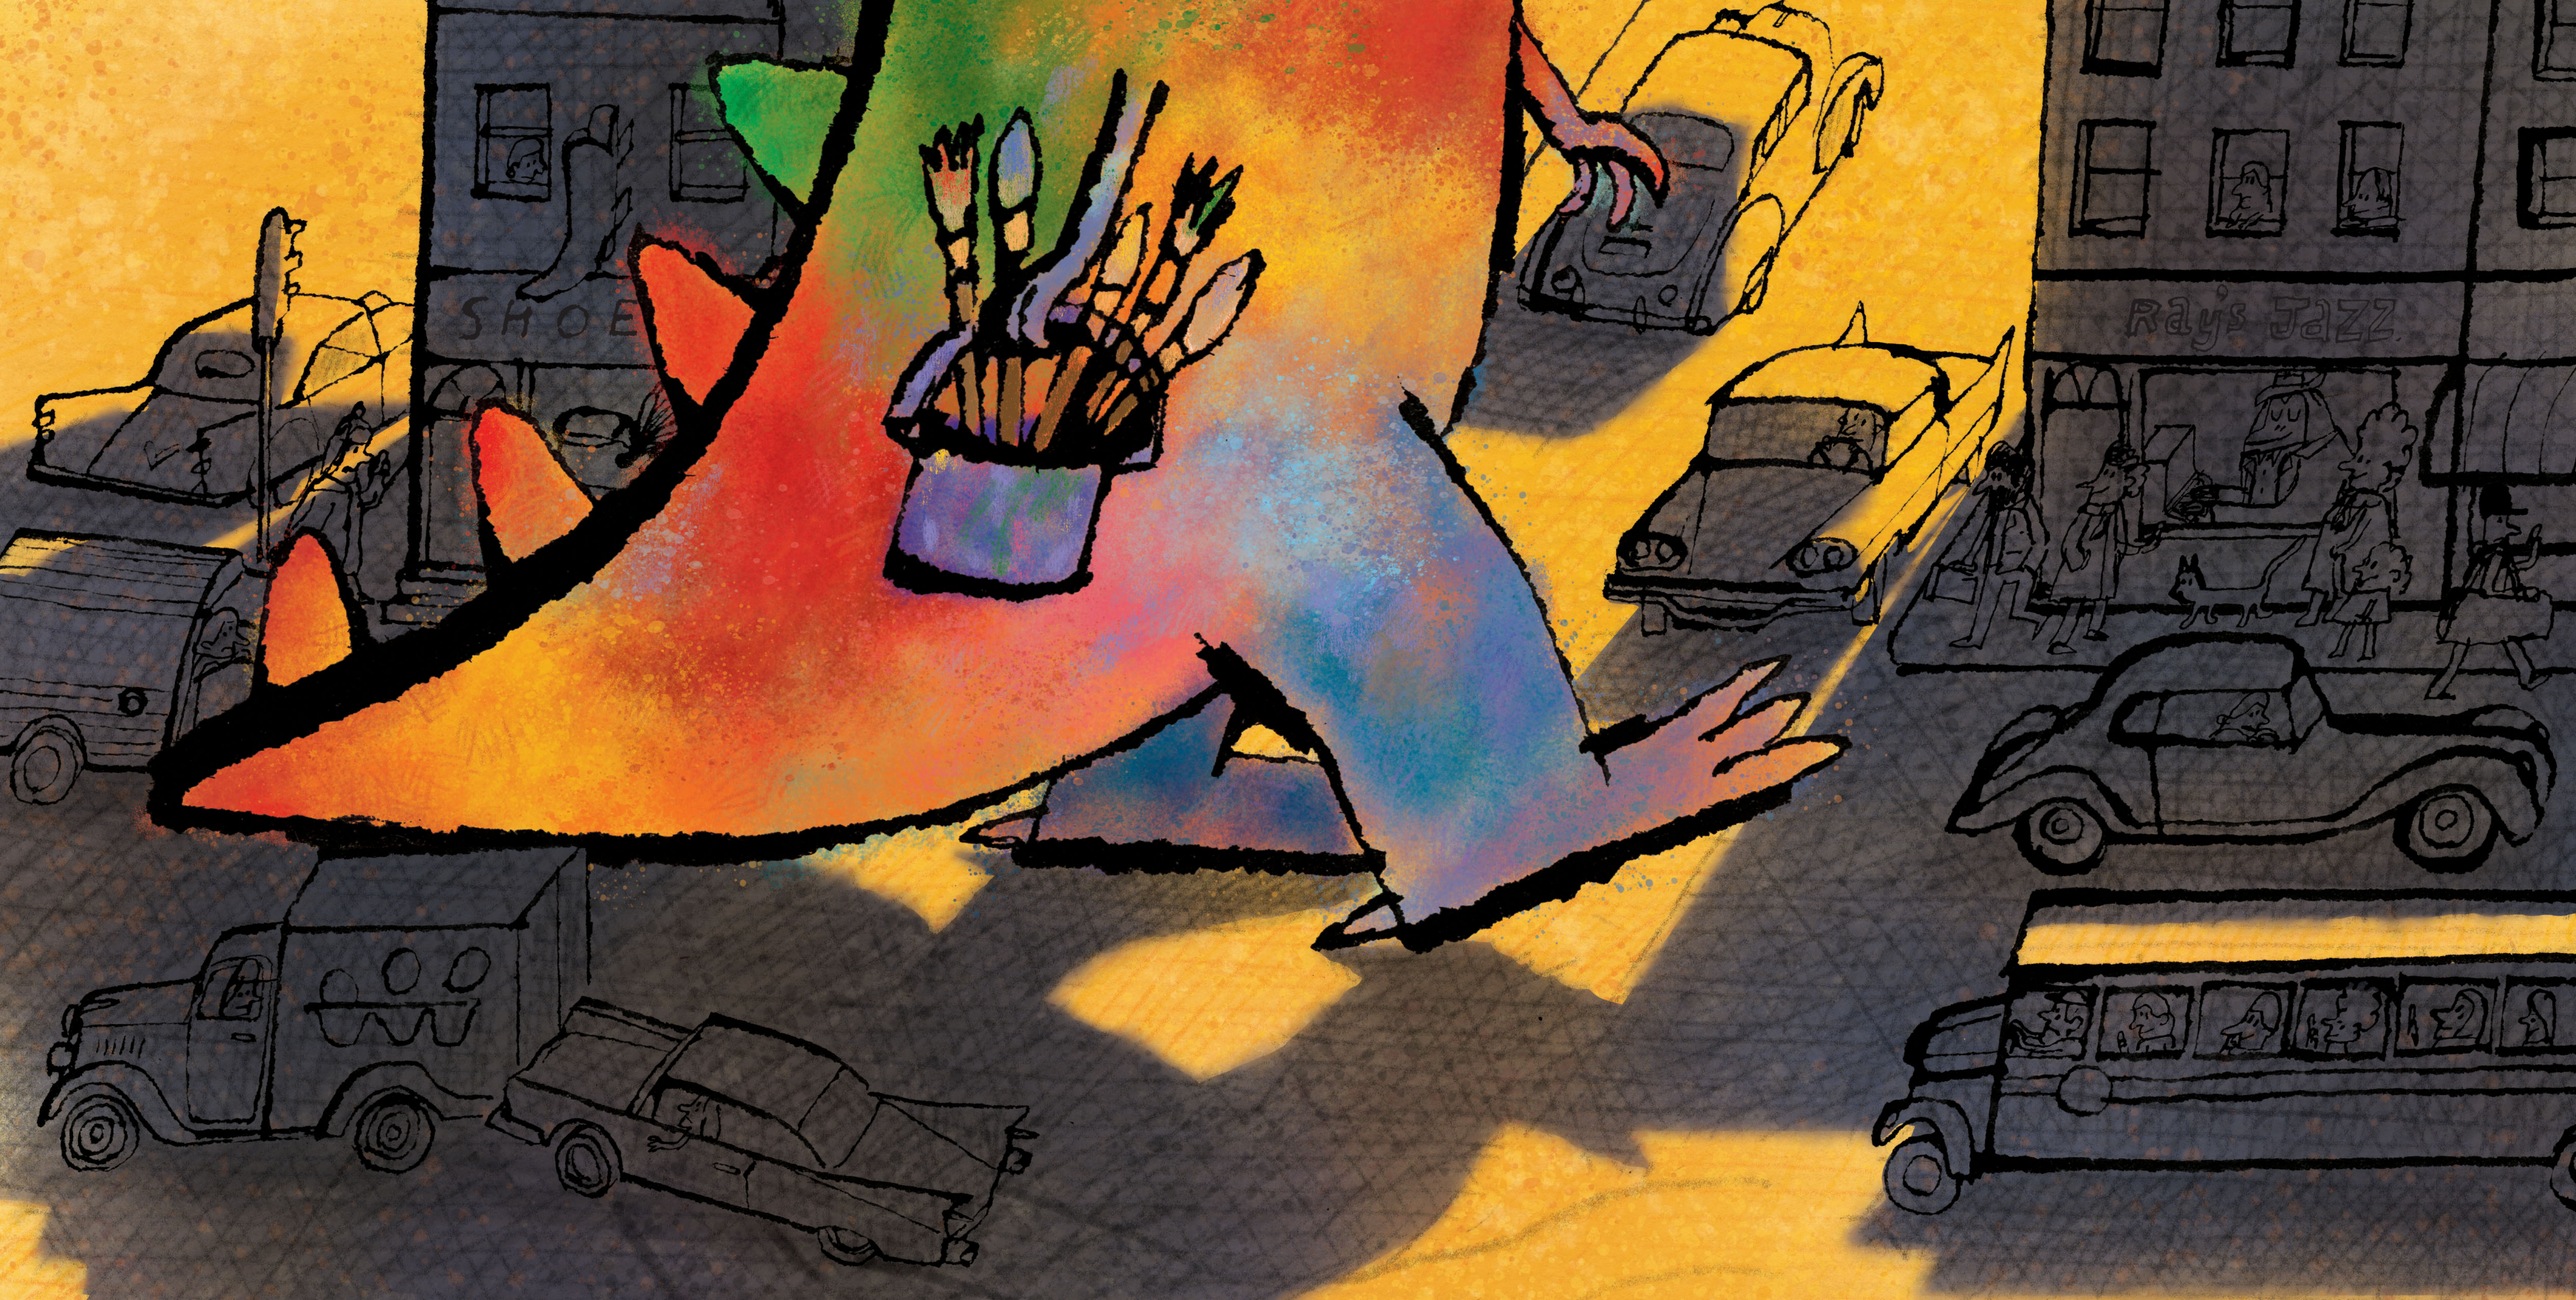

To share her pictures
with the world.

To show the world
as she sees it.
Its joy and
its beauty.

And so she must go on a journey,
far from home.

Time to hug goodbye
the ones she loves.

The Artist arrives
in a rushing, bustling city.

A busy, big place,
with plenty of space . . .
