THE BOX FULL OF WONDERS

Karl Newson Emily Hamilton

Andersen Press

A box that I found . . .

It was empty.

But now . . .

There's an octopus climbing up its starboard bow and a new-person pirate who wants all my GOLD!

It was just a box.

Tatty.

And old.

Now it's my Box Full of Wonders!
You see – I make it whatever
I want it to be . . .

An aeroplane.

A tractor.

An iceberg.

A whale.

It's even a shell I can wear like a snail.

It's my submarine.

It's my treehouse.

And look . . .

at bedtime it's perfect
for me and my book.
