Granny Pip grows fruit

Granny Pip is busy in her garden.
She works all year to grow fantastic fruit.

Autumn brings strong winds and storms. I help to sweep up piles of fallen leaves, while Granny spreads the soil with steamy compost.

Granny digs big holes in the ground for some new raspberry plants. Together we plant a prickly gooseberry bush.

Winter comes with icy frost and snow.

Granny cuts back tangled apple branches and prunes her favourite pear tree.

Spring breezes in with sun and showers.
Granny plants some strawberry seedlings.
We dig up weeds, to give the tiny seedlings space to grow.
