GRAFFEG

This is

Red.

Red lives here, with Chino and Maude.

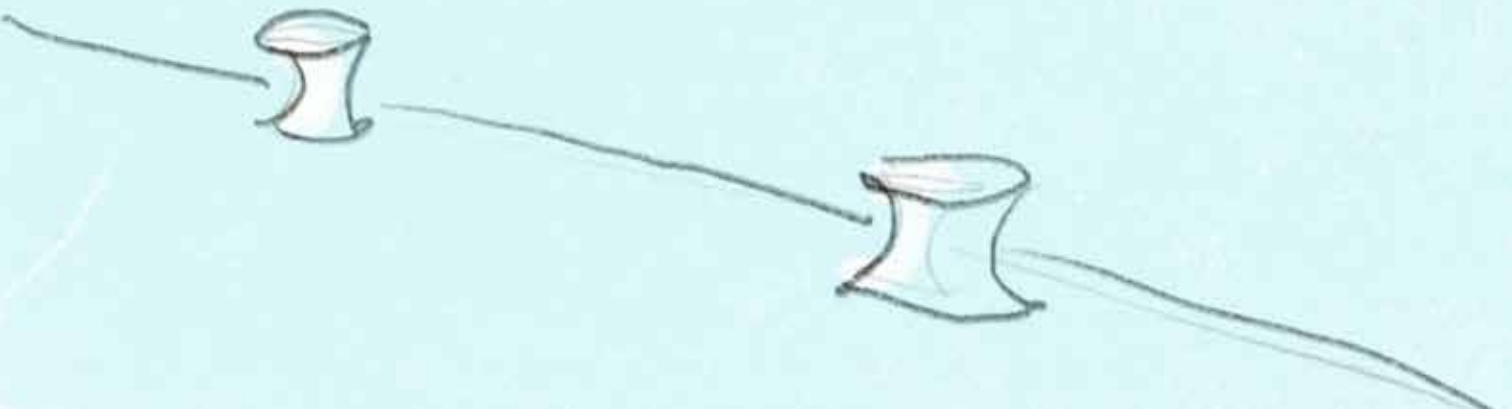

And also there, with Sita and Claude.

So you see,
there are things that he does at this house. His house.

And there are things that he does at that house. His house.

With Chino and Maude, he does this
and he does that.

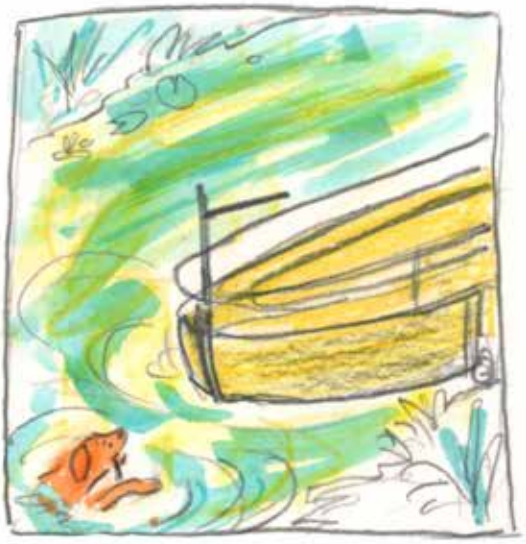

And sometimes, you know,
he does this and that and that and this.

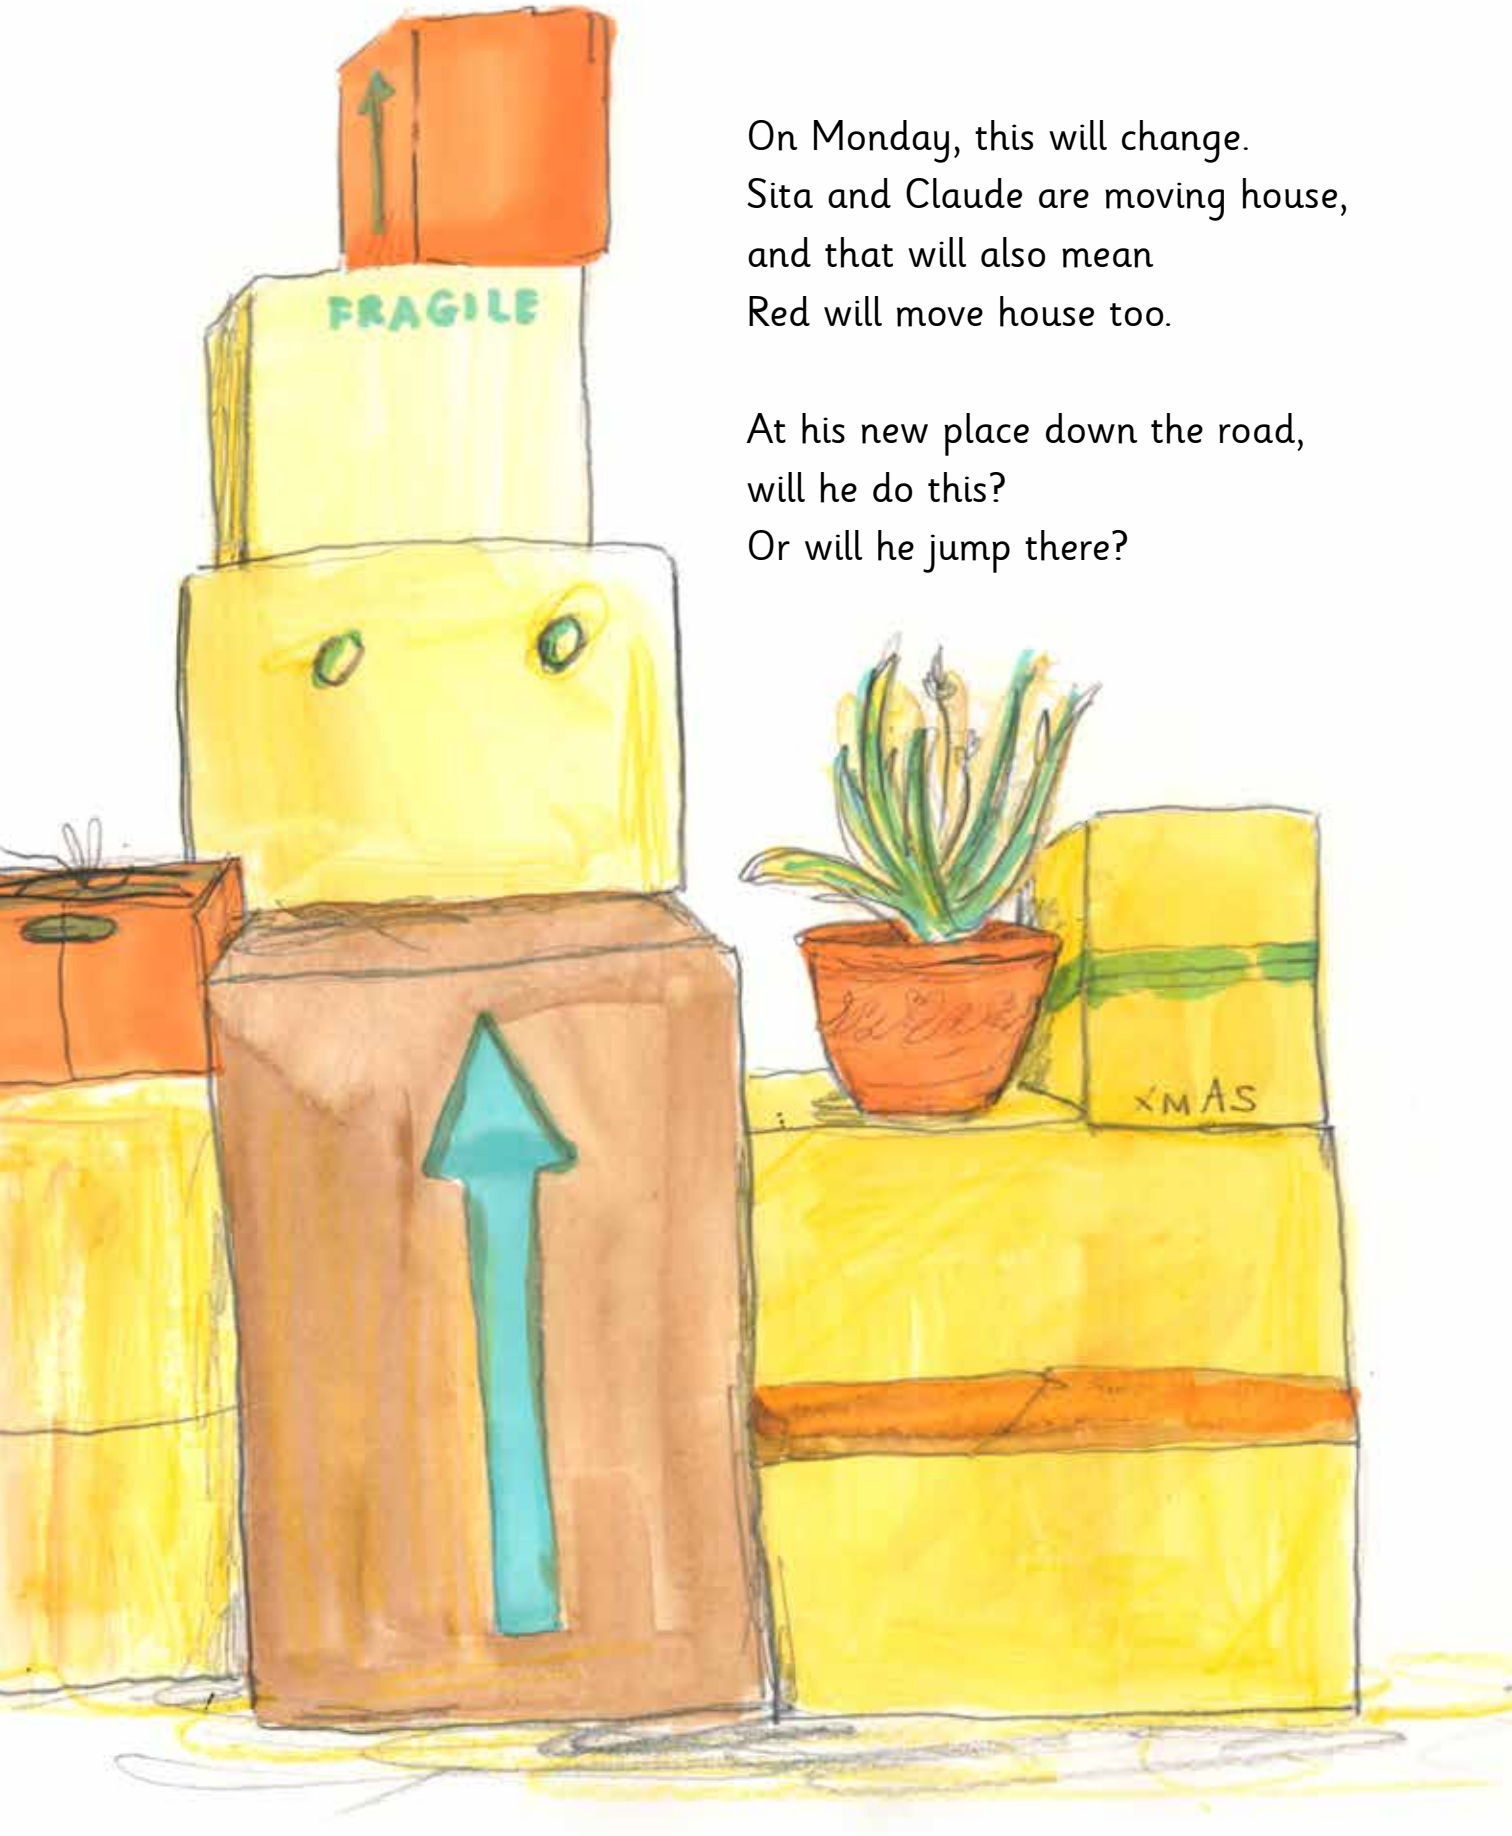

With Sita and Claude,
Red jumps here
and he jumps there.

And sometimes, you know, he jumps
here and there and there and here.

On Monday, this will change.
Sita and Claude are moving house,
and that will also mean
Red will move house too.

At his new place down the road,
will he do this?
Or will he jump there?

THIS WAY UP

Red is Home

This is Red.

Red lives in two homes and has special things he does in each.

But Monday is moving day.

What if the new house isn't like the old one?

What if there aren't special things to do there?

Follow Red on his adventure to discover his new home.
