LANCE

and

The Boiled Egg

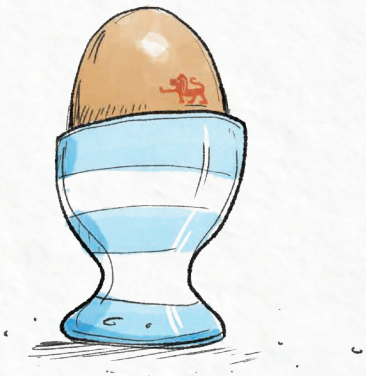

CAREY WAITE

Illustrated by Dotti Colvin

LANCE

and

The Boiled Egg

Text copyright © Carey Waite 2024
Illustrations copyright © Dotti Colvin 2024
Front and inside cover design Dotti Colvin

The right of Carey Waite and Dotti Colvin to be identified as author and illustrator of this work has been asserted in accordance with the copyright, design and patents act of 1988.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without the prior permission of the author and illustrator.

ISBN 978-1-7384316-0-1

Published by The Custard Press 2024
Registered in Great Britain.

Started for Alice and Oliver…

Finished (nearly) for Ezra, Marlow and Otis.

PERU
GUATEMALA

LANCE AND THE BOILED EGG

Lance lives with his Mummy and Daddy. He doesn't have any brothers or sisters. He's a good little boy most of the time. Well, you wouldn't expect a little boy to be good all of the time would you?

Lance loves sweeties and cakes and chocolate and ice cream and he loves watching cricket. He loves his bike, toy cars and his teddy bear. He's got a floppy mop of hair and hates when he has to get it cut.

He is eight years old.

Lance's Daddy has brown hair, which is quite short, and a moustache. He wears glasses and drives a little red car.

Lance's Mummy has blonde hair. She looks after the old people up the road and sometimes brings one of the old men or old ladies home for tea.

Lance always likes them and they always like him because he is very polite. They always say how BIG he is. Sometimes they even give him a bit of money which he puts in his piggy bank. When this happens he always says 'Thank you.'

His Mummy doesn't wear glasses and she doesn't have a moustache!