For Dan - S.S.

Dedicated to my wife, Ragna. Without her support, I wouldn't be able to draw silly, fun books about banana hunts - J.C.

"Hello," said Bernardo.
"I've come round to play."

"Perhaps we could go on a bear hunt today?"

LETTERS

"OH NO, that's too scary!" declared Auntie Dot.
"Let's find something else, something safer, to spot."

Bernardo thought harder:

"Not parrots or bees.

Or spiders or lizards,

or beetles or trees..."

At last, something PERFECT popped into his head.

"Bananas!" he cried.

"We can hunt those instead."

He found a HUGE
bunch,

then he staggered away
to hide them excitedly, all round the bay.

He put some in trees,

and one under a rock.

And one on a washing line, tucked in a sock.
