Odd One Out!

Isadora and her friends have been making ice creams.
Can you spot the odd one out in each row?

Dream Ice Cream

Now draw your own ice cream in the space below. What flavour will be it? How many scoops will you have? Will you add a flake, berries or sprinkles?

Isadora's Birthday

Read the passage below from Isadora Moon Has a Birthday and then see how many of the questions you can answer!

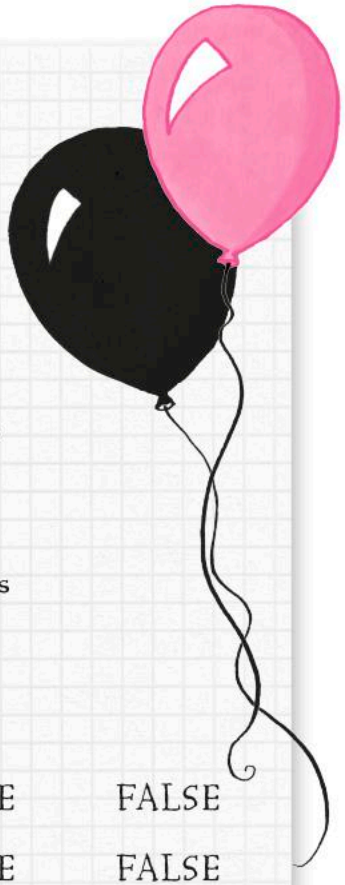

On the morning of my birthday I woke up bright and early. The sun was shining outside and the birds were chirping. I poked Pink Rabbit awake.

'Today's the day!' I said to him. I leapt out of bed and we flew down the stairs together. Mum, Dad, and my baby sister, Honeyblossom, were all in the kitchen waiting for me. The table had been laid for breakfast and there was a pink package sitting in front of my place all tied up with glittery ribbon.

'Happy Birthday, Isadora!' cried Mum and Dad together. They both sat at the table smiling. Mum had a bowl of flower nectar yoghurt with wild berries in front of her and Dad had already started drinking his red juice. Vampires love red juice. Honeyblossom was sitting in her highchair and happily waving her bottle of pink milk in the air.

1. Why is it a special morning for Isadora?

2. Where are Isadora's parents?

   .....

3. What is Isadora's mum having for breakfast?

   a) Red fruit juice yoghurt

   b) Flower nectar yoghurt with wild berries
