When I woke up
this morning Penguin
was still missing.

We'd looked in
the fridge,

under the bed

and in the pond.

I said, "Grandad,
where can she possibly be?"
And he said,
"There's one
place we haven't looked."

So we went down into the basement . . .

. . . looked in the old bath,

under the tangled-up old clothes dryer, and in the dressing-up box.

But there was no sign of Penguin.
