Hannah and the Violin

SATOSHI KITAMURA

Scallywag Press Ltd
LONDON

Hannah was alone in the garden.
"I wish there was someone to play with,"
she said to herself.

Hannah spotted a leaf on the grass.

She thought it looked like something else.
"I know – it's a violin!" said Hannah.
"Perhaps I can play it."

So that is what she did.
As Hannah played her leaf-violin,
a bird started to sing.

Soon more birds were flying around Hannah.
They were all singing in chorus.
