Cub hadn't slept well. In the morning,
he had lots of thoughts racing
around and around his head.

Cub was so full of big feelings that he had no space left inside for anything, or anyone, else.

"No!" snapped Cub when Ossie and Flick asked if they could play with the clay too.

"Go away!" Cub snarled when Rhu and Nook came over to show him
a ladybug they had found.

And when little Mo gave Cub her teddy bear to cuddle, he threw it high up into the big tree. Then he stomped around and began to swing angrily on one of the tree's tough, bendy branches.
