LEAVE THE TREES PLEASE
MAGIC CAT
MELISSA CASTRILLÓN

To my dear husband,
whose heart beats with the rhythm of nature, and to the trees,
whose words breathe life into the silence of the forest – may we cherish and protect them always.
May we nurture the world as you nurture your words.
Forever love.

- Q. Z.

For Luke and Iggy, you're my world,
my roots and my constant inspiration.

- M. C.

Leave the trees, please.

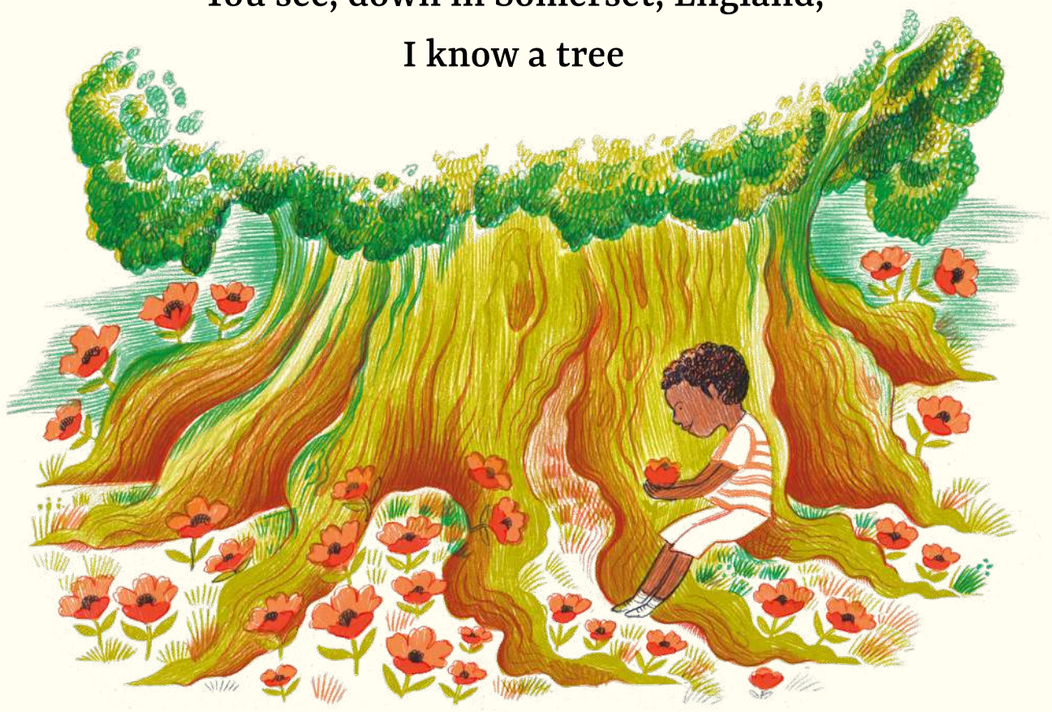

to put all living things at ease.

So, leave the trees, please.

You see, down in Somerset, England,
I know a tree

that is one thousand
and five hundred years old.
