INTRODUCTION

ARE THEY REALLY OUT THERE?

Are you feeling brave? Then step into the weird world of scary beasts!

Here are stories about terrifying sea monsters and lake-lurking horrors. Read about nightmarish flying animals, amphibians that look like dinosaurs and man-beasts living up mountains. These are tales of mysterious creatures from all over the world.

But do they really exist? The many eyewitnesses in these stories are sure they have seen something they just cannot explain. If you want to take on the challenge to find out the truth behind these stories, read the Let's Investigate pages at the end of each chapter. Examine what has allegedly been found, seen or heard.

At the end of the book there are loads more tips on how to conduct your own investigation into these fascinating mysteries. You will need to keep an open mind and think for yourself. Over to you!

ALLEGEDLY
