TIGER, DON'T WORRY!

Daishu Ma

post wave

It's a beautiful sunny day.
"What shall we do, Mei?" asks Tiger.
"Let's do something fun," says Mei.
"I know!" says Tiger. "Follow me!"

Granny is busy picking tea leaves.

“That looks FUN!” says Tiger.
“Come on, let’s pick tea, too!”

It’s harder than it looks . . . especially with big paws!
“Be careful, Tiger!” I say.

An illustration featuring a young boy with dark, curly hair and a large white eye, wearing a red shirt and dark pants, looking down at a tiger. The tiger is orange with dark brown stripes and has a white belly. Both the boy and the tiger have several green tea leaves scattered around them. In the bottom left corner, there is a small woven basket containing more tea leaves. The background is plain white.

OOOPS!

There are tea leaves EVERYWHERE!

“Don’t worry, Mei,” says Tiger.

“Let’s find something else to do.”

Daddy is busy drying the tea leaves.

“That looks FUN!” says Tiger.

“Come on, let’s dry tea leaves too!”

“Be careful, Tiger!” I say.
