Punctuation Capital letters and full stops the vet helps stan she rubs six big blobs of mud off his leg she wraps up his cut leg stan licks the vet's hand

"he is well," she grins

There are 6 capital letters and 5 full stops missing.
Did you spot them all?

This is a punctuation and comprehension activity. Read the text carefully and find the missing capital letters and full stops.

This sheet may be photocopied by the purchaser. © 2024 Dorling Kindersley Limited

Punctuation Capital letters and full stops

Capital letters are needed at the beginning of sentences and for proper nouns like names.

Full stops are needed at the end of sentences.

ned cut up the cod ned and sal set off to get sid back ned had the box of cod in his bag as a gift for sid

There are 6 capital letters and 3 full stops missing.
Did you spot them all?

This is a punctuation and comprehension activity. Read the text carefully and find the missing capital letters and full stops.

This sheet may be photocopied by the purchaser. © 2024 Dorling Kindersley Limited

Reading accuracy CVC and CVCC words pin

pen
pan

lap
lamp
limp

bunk sunk
dunk

lit
figs
gift

tent
nets tens

sink
silk
link

Ask the pupil to read the words in each box and circle the word that matches the picture.

This sheet may be photocopied by the purchaser. © 2024 Dorling Kindersley Limited