Ginny Weasley
(Ron's sister)

Ron comes from a big, old wizarding family. As the youngest Weasley son, he has learned a lot about Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry from his older brothers.

He makes friends with Harry Potter on his first journey to Hogwarts. Ron shares Harry's sweets and they learn about each other.

Ron collects Chocolate Frog Cards

He's got about five hundred but is missing Agrippa and Ptolemy

"I'm the sixth in our family to go to Hogwarts. You could say I've got a lot to live up to ... Everyone expects me to do as well as the others, but if I do, it's no big deal, because they did it first."

Bertie Bott's Every-Flavour Beans (bought by Harry)

RONALD BILIUS WEASLEY

Nearly Headless Nick (Gryffindor house ghost)

Ron is sorted into Gryffindor, the same Hogwarts house as his brothers, and his new friend Harry.

“It was Ron’s turn. He was pale green by now. Harry crossed his fingers under the table and a second later the hat had shouted, ‘GRYFFINDOR!’ Harry clapped loudly with the rest as Ron collapsed into the chair next to him.”

MIND THAT TREE!

Ron doesn't always use magic wisely but he is resourceful, even if that means having to borrow an enchanted Ford Anglia to get to school. Ron and Harry fly the car to Hogwarts on the first day of term, nearly getting them both expelled.

Has an Invisibility Booster
(doesn't last very long)

Has an Undetectable
Extension Charm on it
(Mrs Weasley doesn't know)

At the start of their second year, Ron and Harry miss the train from King's Cross station and decide to fly the car to Hogwarts.

Several Muggles
see Ron and Harry in the flying car.

“We're stuck, right? And we've got to get to school, haven't we? And even underage wizards are allowed to use magic if it's a real emergency, section nineteen or something of the Restriction of Thingy ...”
