

CROAKY

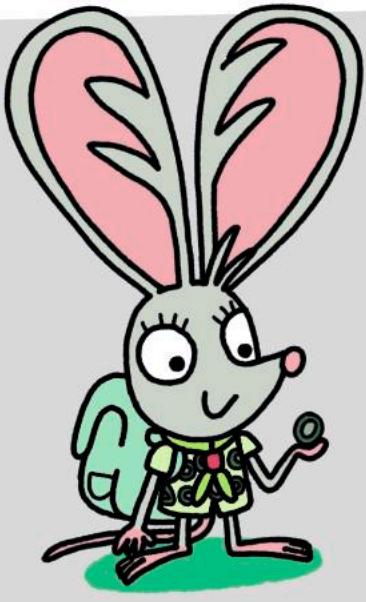

- Stole his style from TV adventurers
- Absurdly long tongue
- Sticky hands and feet
- Ready for adventure
- Curiously high waistband

Croaky is an excitable and enthusiastic frog who leaps before he looks. His daring streak can land him in hot water, though he usually has a trick or two to get out of it.

WINSTON

Winston is a Woggle Scout leader who is keen to relive his days as an adventurer. He is very experienced in the great outdoors, so you'd be surprised how often he relies on Croaky and Sheena when things go wrong.

SHEENA

Sheena is a bright and willing Woggle Scout who has collected more badges than Winston's had kipper sandwiches. She can't resist the call to adventure, but prefers a safety-first approach to most situations.

'Where could he be?' asked Sheena as she and Croaky Hopper searched the Woggle Scout hut for Winston, their leader.

Croaky had a habit of letting his imagination run wild. And if he wasn't on a grand adventure with Winston and Sheena, then he liked to pretend he was. They checked the basement, which was full of amazing artefacts and relics from Winston's adventuring days. But it was a bit eerie and quiet without their puffin leader. For a moment, anyway.

'The doors were unlocked so he must be around here somewhere,' said Sheena.

'And look!' said Croaky, holding up Winston's mug. 'His coffee is still warm.'

'Good job, detective,' said Sheena, playing along. 'Perhaps he left in a hurry. He could even be . . . nearby.'

Their eyes were drawn to the cupboard in the corner. They looked at each other and nodded. Slowly, Croaky and Sheena crept up to the door. But as they reached for the handle, it flew open.

Boooo!

‘I hope you’ve got a good reason for nearly scaring us to death,’ Sheena scolded as Winston flapped around, trying to remove a sheet.

‘He didn’t scare me,’ Croaky boasted, hoping nobody had seen the look on his face moments before.

‘As it happens, I do have a good reason,’ said Winston. ‘I’ll reveal all in just a moment.’

'Turn out the lights, Sheena!' said Winston. 'This requires a certain atmosphere.'

Sheena plunged the basement into darkness. 'I don't like this,' she squeaked.

'Are you going to reveal our next adventure?' Croaky asked excitedly. But Winston didn't respond. Croaky couldn't even tell where he was.

Suddenly, the puffin's face lit up.
