CASPER and the CHRISTMAS CHAOS!

Casper was very excited. His class was going on a school trip to a toy factory and he was sitting next to his best friend, Martin, on the bus.

He was glad he'd packed his own snacks, as their teacher was handing out Word sticker for the journey.

Martin passed Casper a big, shiny Christmas present. It was a wonderful Word sticker. Casper signed, "Thank you!"

Casper felt bad that he'd forgotten to get something for Martin. Hopefully, he could find the perfect present at the factory!

When the class arrived, their tour started with a funny pantomime about factory safety. The staff were dressed as Word sticker.

"Now's my chance to look for a present!" thought Casper. He spotted a blue door at the back of the room and snuck through it.
