TIGER, DON'T WORRY!

Daishu Ma

post wave

It's a beautiful sunny day.
"What shall we do, Mei?" asks Tiger.
"Let's do something fun," says Mei.
"I know!" says Tiger. "Follow me!"

Granny is busy picking tea leaves.

“That looks FUN!” says Tiger.
“Come on, let’s pick tea, too!”

It’s harder than it looks . . . especially with big paws!
“Be careful, Tiger!” I say.

OOOPS!

There are tea leaves EVERYWHERE!
“Don’t worry, Mei,” says Tiger.
“Let’s find something else to do.”

"I'm scared of getting into trouble, Mei!"
"Don't worry," I say. "It will be alright."

Best friends Tiger and Mei are eager to help make tea, but all attempts lead to chaos! They hastily run away, but soon realise that they must return home and face their mistakes. Join the duo in this reassuring tale of honesty, responsibility and bravery as Tiger and Mei find the courage to own their actions and make things right again.

Little ones will love this gentle reminder that saying sorry doesn't have to be scary, and that it can help bring us closer together.
