Calm is a quiet emotional refill.

Ahhhhhhhhhh!

Shh! I am Calm Scribble.

It's a feeling that is comfortable,
cool and chill.

When we are calm, our BIG feelings take flight.

We feel safe inside and the world feels light.

Calm feels like a gentle breeze on a warm spring morning.

Your brain feels clear,

your heart beat is steady

and your muscles start relaxing.

What can you spot?
I am Spot-It Scribble.

Hmm! I am Focused Scribble.

Being calm feels and looks different for everyone.

It can help you want to learn new things...

Yo! I am Friendly Scribble.

Whee! I am
Silly Scribble.

...and get along with your friends.

Or manage emotions as they bubble up,
so you can have more fun.

Feeling calm gives our bodies and brains

time to rest and recharge.

It makes it easier to think, solve problems and make decisions that normally might feel quite hard.

When we feel calm, we can manage
BIG feelings better and feel more in control...

...even when things get tough and look like they are about to unroll.

*I can choose my actions!
I am In-Control Scribble.*
