

BIG BRILLIANT WORLD

Discover FIRST WORDS in 12 LANGUAGES and FUN FACTS
from cities around the world

AYSHA TENGİZ

B
I
G
P
I
C
T
U
R
E
P
R
E
S
S

BIG BRILLIANT WORLD

AYSHA TENGİZ

CONTENTS

4-5 Hello!

6-7 Mexico City

8-9 New York

10-11 London

12-13 Paris

14-15 Barcelona

16-17 Amsterdam

18-19 Berlin

20-21 Budapest

22-23 Rome

24-25 Istanbul

26-27 Seoul

28-29 Tokyo

30-31 Goodbye!

HELLO!

We're about to embark on a journey to 12 incredible cities and we want YOU to come along with us. This book is your passport to discover the big, the bold and the brilliant!

Every city holds its own stories – from Budapest's magical baths and Mexico City's vibrant food culture to Rome's ancient wonders and Seoul's futuristic technology. Every stop will bring you one step closer to understanding how diverse and fun our world really is.

Along the way, you'll also learn about the different languages spoken in each city – and even pick up some of your first words in those languages! Want to say "hello" in Spanish? Or ask for tea in Korean? By the end of the book, you'll have a collection of words and phrases from around the world.

So, are you ready to begin your adventure? Pack your bags, flip the page and let's get started!

MEXICO CITY

Mexico City is the capital of Mexico. With a population of around nine million people, it is the largest Spanish-speaking city in the world. It was founded by the Mexica people in 1325 CE, which makes it one of the oldest cities in the Americas.

"Adios" ("Goodbye")

"No mires abajo!" ("Don't look down!")

The Mexicable is a 14-station cable car transport network.

Metropolitan Cathedral

El Zócalo is the city's main public square.

"Eso estuvo de lujo!" ("That was amazing!")

Marachi bands gather in the Plaza every day to play traditional Mexican folk music.

Monumento a la Revolución

The Angel of Independence

Chapultepec Castle means 'on the hill of the grasshopper'. This grand 18th-century palace contains Mexico's National Museum of History.

Chapultepec Park contains a zoo where you can see pandas, jaguars and wolves.

The Mexico City Metro has 12 lines and 95 stations. It transports around 5.5 million passengers every day.

The famous artist Frida Kahlo lived in the Blue House, which is now a museum.

"Delicious!" ("Delicioso")

Agua Fresca, meaning 'cool waters', is a refreshing, fruity drink.

Tamales - corn dough filled with meats and often wrapped in corn husks

"Gracias" ("Thank you")

The Floating Gardens of Xochimilco are a UNESCO World Culture Heritage Site. The boats here are called 'chupales'.

Located around 80 kilometres outside of the city sits one of Mexico's most active volcanoes. Its name is Popocatepetl, which means 'Smoking Mountain'.

metimes called 'The Big Apple', New York has the most famous skyline in the world. Home to over eight million people, it is the most densely populated city in the USA. Busy, bustling and exciting, New York is a global centre of finance, technology, culture, fashion, media and entertainment.

Sometimes called 'The Big Apple', New York has the most famous skyline in the world. Home to over eight million people, it is the most densely populated city in the USA. Busy, bustling and exciting, New York is a global centre of finance, technology, culture, fashion, media and entertainment.

