Who Will You Be When You Grow Up?

Have you ever thought about the future and what your life will look like when you're an adult? There are so many different possibilities, it's fun to imagine.

This book asks lots of questions to get you thinking about what you want to be like when you're older. It will ask you about...

- activities you would like to try
- places you might like to visit
- choices you could make.

After exploring this book, the next time a grown up asks about your dreams for the future, you'll have loads of ideas!
