Otto’s eyes open wide.

As the sun rises, so do Mama, Papa, Magatha, Tamlyn, Monty and Hilbert.

But now Otto is fast asleep.

By now Mama and Papa are exhausted. "Maybe if we do nothing, Otto will settle down all by himself," says Papa Bird.

“Brilliant idea!” says Mama Bird.

But it isn’t.

Otto is so noisy, he wakes all the birds in his nest, all the birds in his tree and the next tree and the next!

Otto wakes the whole forest, except for Mama and Papa Owl. Being nocturnal, they are already awake.
