It was a good day for Kim. She was very happy. Jack had asked her to go out with him.

Jack was the best-looking boy in the school and all the girls liked him.

“What shall I wear?” Kim asked her best friend, Milly.

“Where are you going?” Milly wanted to know.

“Jack didn’t say,” Kim said. “But I want to look cool.”

Kim looked at all her clothes. She didn’t see anything she liked.

“I hate all my clothes,” she said. “I’ll have to buy something new.”

Milly said she would go shopping with Kim.

So on Saturday morning they went into town.

Kim looked in all the shops in the shopping centre.

She tried on loads of tops.

In the end, she found one she liked.

“My hair is a mess,” she said to Milly.
“I can’t go to the hair-dresser. I’ve got no money. Will you do my hair for me?”

On Saturday afternoon, Milly went to Kim’s house.

She did Kim’s hair for her.

She made Kim look much older.

“That looks fab!” Kim said. “Will you help me with my make-up too?”

Milly smiled. “I’ll even go out with Jack for you, if you like.”

“Don’t you dare!” Kim said. “He’s mine!”
