Opening extract from

Monty The Rally Car

Written by

Diane and Christyan Fox

Published by

Egmont

All text is copyright of the author and illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

MONTY
Monty's numberplate
Four seats
Twin fuel tanks to last longer on rallies
Tiny but powerful 4-cylinder engine
Sports exhaust with twin pipes
7
Racing number
Very small size and lightweight bodywork to nip through gaps easily
Tough rally wheels and tyres
Very powerful headlamps

Monty the Rally Car Stats and Facts

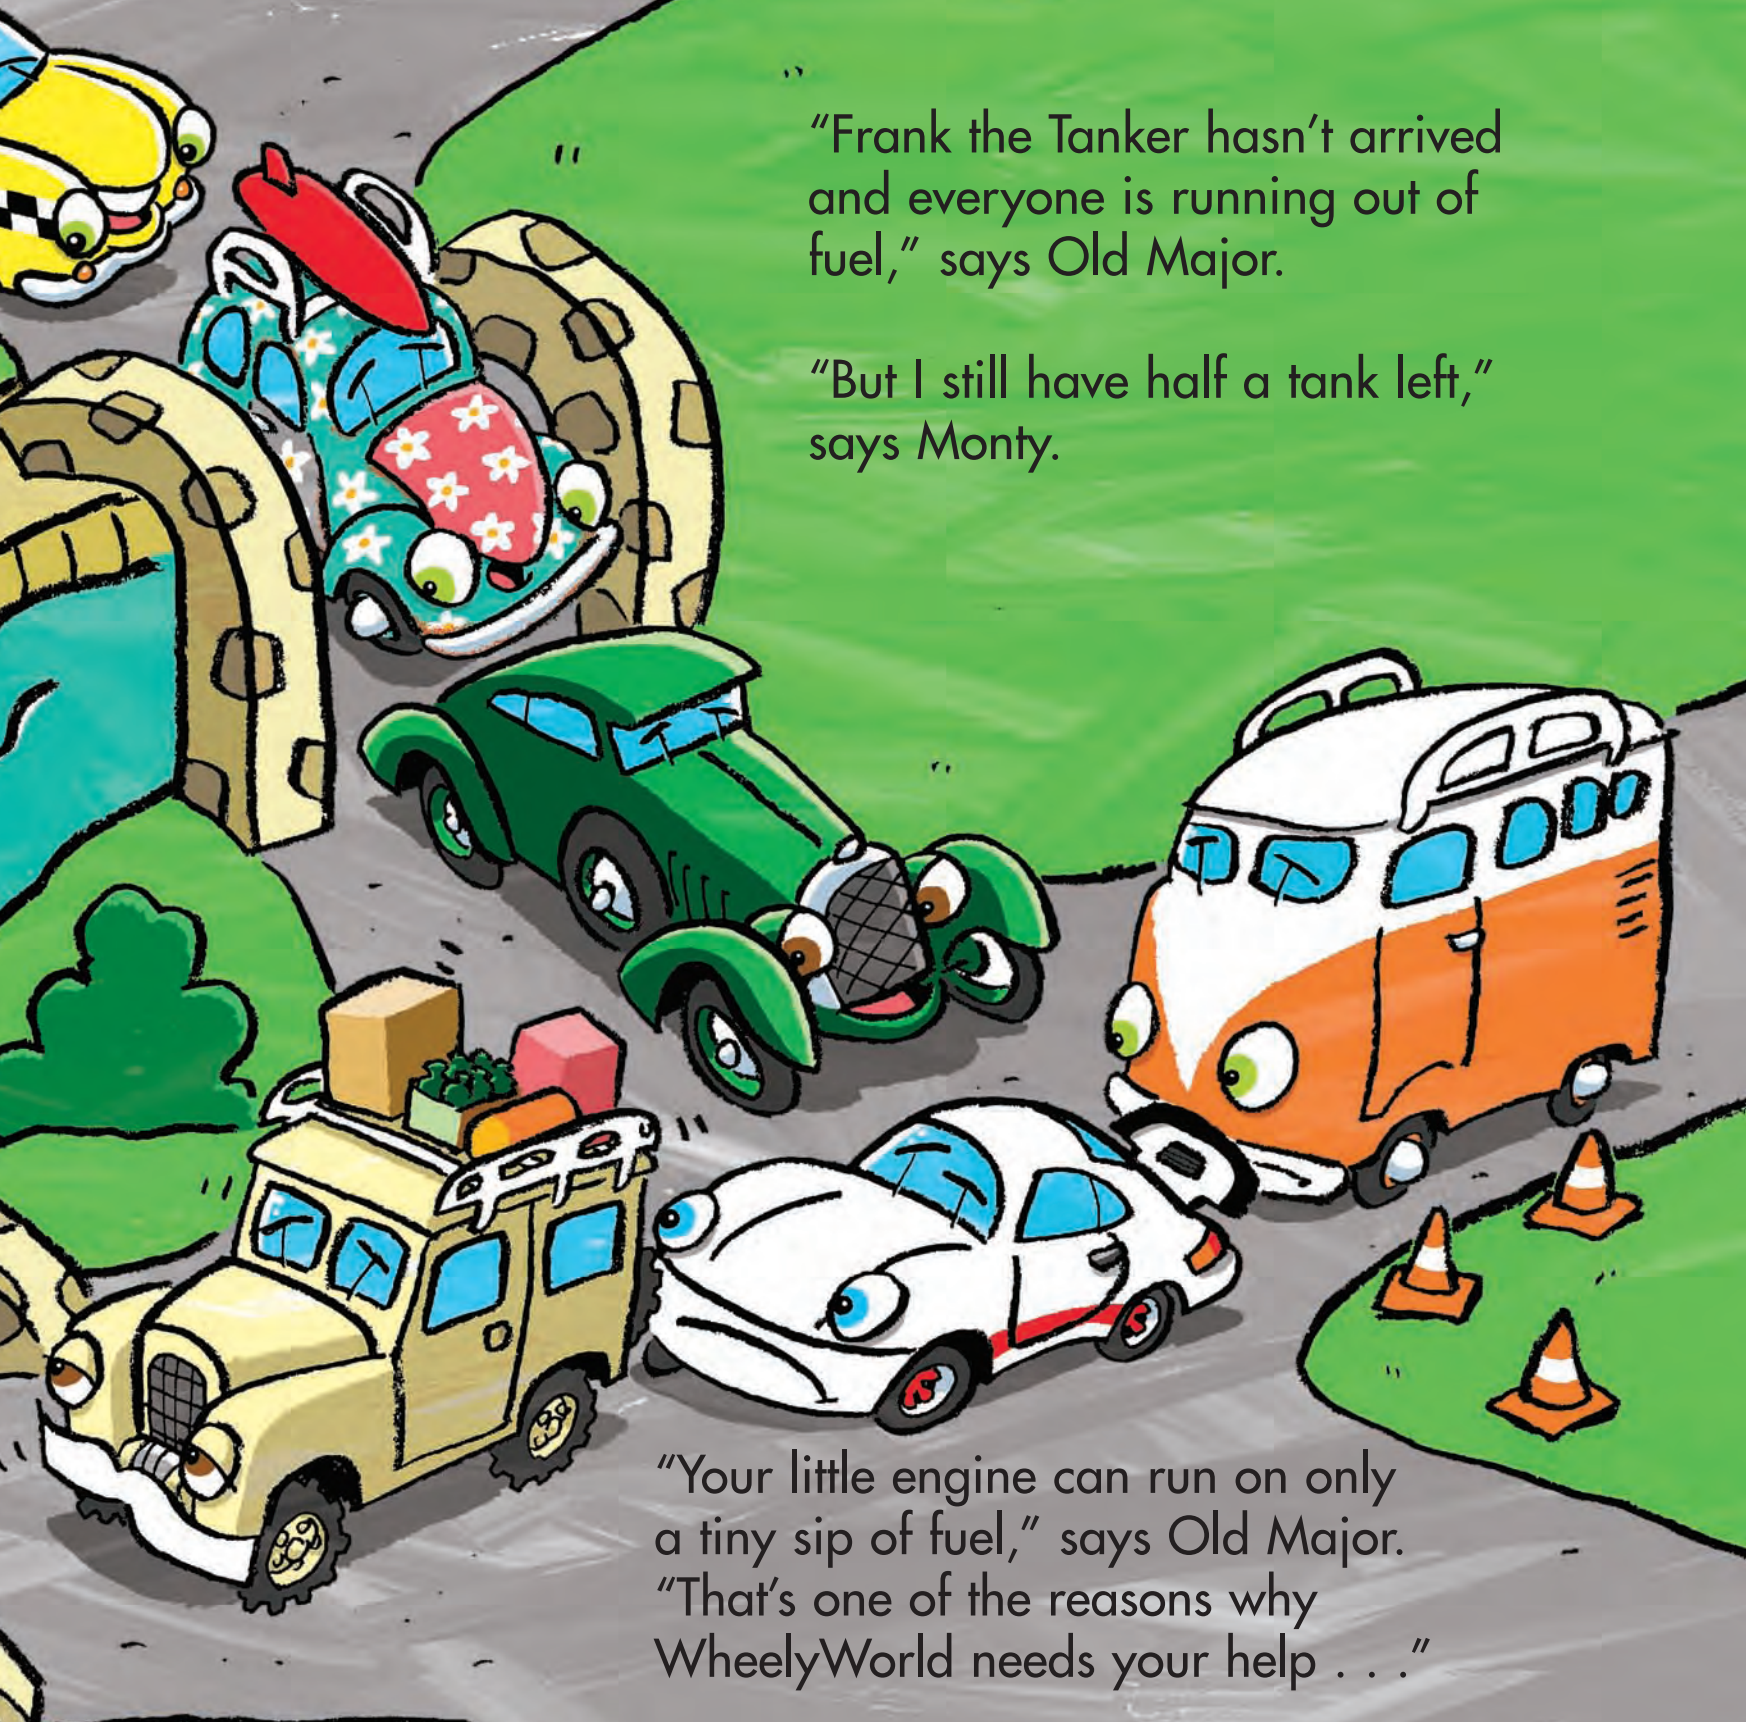

Birthdate	1966
Country where built	Great Britain
Number of doors	2
Length	3054mm
Weight	635kg
Engine type	1.275 litre, 4 cylinder
Power output	100bhp
Top Speed	96mph (154km/h)
0-60mph Acceleration	9 seconds
Fuel Consumption	32 mpg (11km/l)
Environment friendly?	☺
Best Friend	Ratty Patty
Three words Monty would use to describe himself	Cheeky, nippy, adventurous

WheelyWorld is coming to a standstill. Cars are breaking down all over town.

"What's going on?" little Monty asks Old Major.

"Frank the Tanker hasn't arrived and everyone is running out of fuel," says Old Major.

"But I still have half a tank left," says Monty.

"Your little engine can run on only a tiny sip of fuel," says Old Major. "That's one of the reasons why WheelyWorld needs your help . . ."