Lovereading4kids.co.uk

Opening extract from

The Wildest Brother

Written by

Cornelia Funke

Illustrated by

Kerstin Meyer

Published by

Chicken House

All text is copyright of the author and illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

Some mornings when Ben wakes up he's a wild wolf.

But sometimes he's not quiet enough . . .
and then Anna tickles him.

Big sisters know exactly where little brothers are ticklish.
Luckily, she doesn't catch him too often.

Ben loves to paint big bloodstains on Anna's desk with her lipstick.

He tells her they're from a man-eating monster, who especially likes to eat girls . . .
and that he'll protect her.