Lovereading4kids.co.uk

Opening extract from

Fancy Nancy

Written by

Jane O' Connor

Published by

Harper Collins

All text is copyright of the author

Please print off and read at your leisure.

My favourite colour is fuchsia.
That's a fancy way of saying purple.

I like to write my name with a pen that has a plume.
That's a fancy way of saying feather.

And I can't wait to learn French because everything in French sounds fancy.

Nobody in my family is fancy at all.
They never even ask for sprinkles.

There's a lot they don't understand...

Lace-trimmed socks do help me to play football better.

Sandwiches definitely taste better when you stick in frilly toothpicks.

A princess is supposed to keep her tiara on.

"What's a fancy girl to do?"
I ask my doll, Marabelle.
Her full name is Marabelle
Lavinia Chandelier.

