Lovereading4kids.co.uk

Opening extract from

My Grandpa's Amazing Inventions

Written by

Richard Johnson

Published by

Templar Publishing

All text is copyright of the author

Please print off and read at your leisure.

This is me with my grandpa.
My grandpa is very old and very clever. At the bottom of the garden, in his dark dusty workshop, he makes the most marvellous things.

My grandpa is an INVENTOR!

One day a letter arrived for Grandpa.
This is what it said:

Dear Sir,
You have been invited to take part in...

The World's Latest and Greatest Invention Contest
(Grandpa category)

Use your imagination and build something amazing to win the
FIRST PRIZE TROPHY!

Grandpa scratched his head.
"What shall I build?" he wondered. Then Grandma had an idea.
"How about an AMAZING-SPEAKA-ZOO-O-PHONE gizmo that lets us talk with the animals? Imagine chatting with a giraffe!
What would you ask it?"
"Hmm. That's been done before," said Grandpa. "What else?"