Once upon a time, the beautiful Queen of all the Fairies decided to find out how all her fairy godmothers were doing their work. So, with her magic wand, she changed herself into an ugly old woman and went through the countryside. One day, she stopped at a house where lived three sisters: Sula, Rica and Cinderella . . .

After Cinderella had safely been taken away in her beautiful coach, Ko-ko clapped his hands.
Wake up!
O, where is she? How fast she ran! Will no one tell me which way she has gone?
What is this? Her slipper! Hear this which I shall proclaim all over the land . . .
The girl whose foot fits this slipper shall be my wife, be she rich or poor.
