Goldilocks

AND THE THREE BEARS

ROBERT SOUTHEY

Once upon a time there were three bears who lived in a cottage in the woods. . . a great big father bear, a middle-sized mother bear and a little, tiny baby bear.

Each of the bears had a bowl for porridge. There was a great big bowl, a middle-sized bowl and a little, tiny bowl.

Each of the bears had a comfortable chair to sit in. There was a great big chair, a middle-sized chair and a little, tiny chair.

And each of the bears had a warm bed to sleep in. There was a great big bed, a middle-sized bed and a little, tiny bed.
