Little Mist was born in a mountain cave. Curled up in his mother's warmth, all he knew was her soft fur and sweet milk.

One day his mother opened her eyes and stretched her paws.
"It is time, Little Mist," she said.
"Follow me."

She rose up, sniffed the air and padded out of the den.
Little Mist followed out of the dim hush . . .

. . . into bright, singing blue and crisp, sparkling white.

"This is the world," said his mother.
"This is your world."
