

Helping your children choose books they will love

Lovereading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun opening extract from

Prince Edward's Feast

written by

Robin O'Brien

published by

Meadowside Children's Books

All Text is Copyright © of the Author / Illustrator please print off and read at your leisure.

Once upon a time, in a sweet distant land of milk and honey, the Queen waved goodbye to the King.

"I'm off to market," she said,
"and I want that baby fed by the time I get back!"

The Court Jester was as nutty as a fruitcake.
He blew raspberries while he juggled bowls of jelly then served them to Prince Edward.

But Edward looked at the jelly and started to cry.
The Jester was baffled, he didn't know why!

"I'll take you to the Court Egg-Layer, she'll give it a try!"