After tea, Dad says,

"Come along you two. It's time for bed!"

But we're riding through the jungle on the back of a big blue elephant.

"Can we stay up?" asks Tom. "Elephants don't like to be rushed."

"Ten more minutes and then straight to bed," says Dad.

Mum is calling from
the other room,

"TOM! JESSY!
Tea's ready."

We can only just hear her because
now we're in a

big blue taxicab

and we're stuck in traffic
on a noisy city street.
